Subject: Membership - David Hyun

Gentlemaa:

I have known David Hyun since 1952 when David began assuming my duties at the office of Neutra and Alexander.

At that time, I was favorably impressed with Mr. Hyun's abilities and integrity as an architect.

Recently Mr. Hyun expressed to me his wish to share his experience as an architect/developer with his fellow architects by joining the AIA.

Mr. Hyun was a pioneer in applying architectural skills and creativity to the art of development. I heartily endorse Mr. Hyun's application for membership in the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL STARKMAN ASSOCIATES

Re: Recommendation for David Hyun

Dear Sir:

This is a letter of recommendation for corporate membership in behalf of David Hyun, Sr. who has been a licensed architect for many years in the Southern California area, and has outstanding qualifications.

He was the architect and developer of the Japanese Village Plaza Shopping Center in Little Tokyo that was an Honor Award winner in a submission to the Pasadena and Foothill Chapter in 1980 that I am a member of, as well as an Honor Award in Urban Design Administration from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

I would like to convey my fullest support and recommendation for membership in the Institute.

Sincerely,

David K. Hyun, AIA

Dear Mr. Hyun:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects, I am pleased to welcome you as a member of the Institute.

Your membership certificate, AIA pin and packet will be sent to you in the near future.

You are assigned to the Los Angeles Chapter and California Council of the AIA, effective this date.

Membership in the AIA is an opportunity for each of us to grow individually while participating in the development of policies and programs to strengthen the profession of architecture and improve the climate for practice. I urge you to take an active part in your Chapter's activities and the programs it offers, particularly in the areas of professional development, community action programs, and design issues.

David Olan Meeker, Jr., FAIA, Executive Vice-President, and the other members of the national staff join me in extending you a warm welcome. All of us are available to assist you in achieving full measure of benefit from AIA. Please feel free to call upon us.

The American Institute of Architects is now your organization. Please help to make it better by your active participation.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Broshar, FAIA
President

Information for Applicant: The applicant may supplement the above reasons on a separate sheet. In exceptional circumstances and for adequate cause, the secretary of the Institute may lessen the required period of good standing but the other conditions are immutable.

Upon election to Membership Emeritus, all rights and privileges of membership, including the use of the title Member Emeritus written in full after the initials "AIA" or "FAIA," as the case may be, remain intact while the member is exempted from further dues payments to the Institute and the member's chapter and state.

Members Emeriti have the option to remain on the AIA mailing list for $40 per year. This fee helps defray mailing costs. Members Emeriti who do not wish to receive AIA mailings and publications need not pay this mailing charge. Membership Emeritus dues rates ($40) will apply to those members who upgrade their status to Emeritus by March 31 of the current year. After that date, Emeritus dues rates will be effective the year following acceptance to Emeritus status.

Mailing Instructions: Please mail application, with $40 fee if mailings are desired, TO YOUR LOCAL CHAPTER.

NOTE: Payments to The American Institute of Architects and to state and local components are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. However, they may be deductible under other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

LOCAL CHAPTER CONTACT: (If no address indicated, please check your telephone book for local listing or call the AIA at 202/626-7392.)
