Dear Mr. Haas:

We are in receipt of the application of Mr. Henry Dole Norris for corporate membership in The Institute and the Georgia Chapter.

Mr. Norris states that he had been an associate of the Florida South Chapter from 1940 to 1942. We shall appreciate it if you will advise us if there are any outstanding dues owed by Mr. Norris. Under established procedure, if there is any such indebtedness, it should be settled before the application may be given consideration. Mr. Norris' address is as follows: 24 Lombardy Way, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary

NOTICE OF IMPENDING TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

To Mr. Henry D. Norris
318 Techwood Drive
Atlanta, Georgia

As of January 1 of this year, it was necessary for The Secretary to inform you that, because of your default of dues at the close of the previous year, your membership in The Institute had been suspended.

At that time you were advised that you could restore your membership within the ensuing twelve months period by paying your indebtedness, and that if you failed to so restore your membership it would automatically terminate at the close of the year.

The Secretary hereby notifies you that to date you have not restored your membership, being still indebted to The Institute in the amount stated below, and that, if you do not pay at least the dues for 1951 on or before December 31 of this year (1952), your memberships in The Institute and in its chapters of which you are a member will terminate on that date.

The Board sincerely hopes you will not allow this to happen.

December 1, 1952.

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Cherry:

In response to your request of February 26th, with regard to reinstatement of a former member and dues obligations which had accrued during his membership:

All past dues to The Institute and any and all chapters to which the member had been assigned or of which he had been an unassigned member must be paid in full prior to consideration of a request to be readmitted to membership, after a membership has been terminated. Of course, if the Chapter wishes to waive those dues payments, it is privileged to take such action. Otherwise they must be paid.

Sincerely yours,

(Miss) Florence H. Gervais
Membership and Records

P.S. It is noted you refer to Henry D. Norris, who still is a member of The Institute. He was liable to termination but has paid his past dues to The Institute and should be retained on the chapter roster. In his case, if he owes for chapter dues, the Chapter could recommend suspension or termination therefor, if it were unable to collect payment from the member. See By-laws, Chapter I, Article 2, Section 4, paragraphs (b-2) and (d-2).

Information for Applicant: The applicant may supplement the above reasons on a separate sheet. In exceptional circumstances and for adequate cause, the secretary of the Institute may lessen the required period of good standing but the other conditions are immutable.

Upon election to Membership Emeritus, all rights and privileges of membership, including the use of the title Member Emeritus written in full after the initials "AIA" or "FAIA," as the case may be, remain intact while the member is exempted from further dues payments to the Institute and the member's chapter and state.

Members Emeriti have the option to remain on the AIA mailing list for $40 per year. This fee helps defray mailing costs. Members Emeriti who do not wish to receive AIA mailings and publications need not pay this mailing charge. Membership Emeritus dues rates ($40) will apply to those members who upgrade their status to Emeritus by March 31 of the current year. After that date, Emeritus dues rates will be effective the year following acceptance to Emeritus status.

Mailing Instructions: Please mail application, with $40 fee if mailings are desired, TO YOUR LOCAL CHAPTER.

NOTE: Payments to The American Institute of Architects and to state and local components are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. However, they may be deductible under other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.
