New York, 8 Decem. 1893

To the Board of Directors of the American Institute of Architects:

My full name is Lawrence J. Connor

My business address is 132 Nassau St., New York City.

The name of my firm is L. J. Connor

I have practiced the profession of architecture for twenty-five years.

The accompanying photographs, numbered respectively 1, 2 and 3, show completed buildings erected from my plans and under my supervision. No. 1 is a (here give general description of building) St. Vincent's Home, located on corner of Third St. and Lafayette Place, N.Y. City. A ten story brick building for the care of abandoned children. (No. 1 in previous list.)

No. 2, do. An altar erected in St. Leo's Church, 28th St. between Fifth and Madison Aves. The piers are of Caen stone, while the altar itself is mainly of Echillon marble. (No. 3 in previous list.)

No. 3, do. St. Rose Rectory, at No. 40 Cannon St., New York. A three story brick residence, with attic and basement, adjoining St. Rose Church, of which it is the parochial residence. (No. 11 in previous list.)

The accompanying drawings are (here enumerate and describe such drawings as the candidate desires to submit) St. Leo's Church, 28th St., N.Y. - St. Mary's Church, Rahway, N.J. - St. Peter's Church, Washington, D.C. - St. Mary's Rectory, E. Orange, N.J. - Church of the Immaculate Conception, Yonkers, N.Y. &c. &c.

We, Fellows of the American Institute of Architects, hereby indorse Mr. L. J. Connor's application for Fellowship. We know him personally; we know his work; we believe him to be worthy of membership.
