Dear Mr. Powelson:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects, I am pleased to welcome you as a member of the Institute.

You are assigned to the East Bay Chapter of the AIA. Enclosed is your AIA pin and new member packet. A sheet of AIA emblems which may be used when printing stationery and business cards is also enclosed. Please review the guidelines for use on the emblem sheet. Your membership card is being sent under separate cover and should arrive in the next two to three weeks. You will be receiving your membership certificate in approximately eight weeks.

Membership in the AIA is an opportunity for each of us to grow individually while participating in the development of policies and programs to strengthen the profession of architecture and improve the climate for practice. I urge you to take an active part in your chapter's activities and the programs it offers, particularly in the areas of professional development, community action programs, and design issues.

Louis L. Marines, Chief Executive Officer and the other members of the national staff join me in extending you a warm welcome. All of us are available to assist you in achieving the full measure of benefit from the AIA. Our telephone numbers are located in the directory on the back cover of your enclosed Member Benefits Catalog. Please feel free to call upon us.

The American Institute of Architects is now your organization. Please help to make it better by your active participation.

Sincerely yours,
