Dear Mr. Reichard:

We are pleased to receive your application for corporate membership in the AIA along with the Puerto Rico Chapter's favorable recommendation for your election.

However, we are now requiring applicants to attach to their applications proof that they are licensed architects (i.e., a copy of their current license card issued by the registration board).

Please send us a copy of your license card in order to complete your application and enable us to present it to the Secretary of AIA for final action.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Manager

Dear Miss Marx:

Attached is a Xerox copy of the license card of Architect Raul G. Reichard which is submitted in evidence of his license to practice architecture in Puerto Rico, and should be filed with his application for Corporate membership in the AIA.

We have verified with the Board of Examiners of Architects that the license is current. Mr. Reichard is a very respected member of the community and the chapter will be very happy to have him as a member.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Reichard:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you that it has acted favorably on your application and welcomes you to corporate membership in The Institute.

In the near future, you will receive some literature regarding The Institute, which we hope you will find interesting, and a lapel emblem. In approximately one month you will receive a certificate of membership, either directly from The Institute or through formal presentation by the Chapter.

You are assigned to the Puerto Rico Chapter of the AIA, effective January 2, 1970.

I sincerely hope that you will take an active and interested part in your Chapter's activities. The Chapter is the cornerstone of The Institute's strength where the policies which advance our profession are developed. Members who are active in Chapter affairs gain the most from AIA as professional men and provide the leadership which AIA needs to meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for architecture.

I want you to feel free to call on any of The Institute officials or staff members any time the need arises.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Member No. 639660

Dear Ms. Marx:

Having reached age 70 and retired from professional practice, and not having been a member long enough to qualify as a member emeritus, I wish to deactivate my AIA membership as of December 31, 1978.

In order to maintain some connection with the profession in my retirement, I wish to subscribe to the Journal. Will you be so kind as to arrange this for me. Your help will be most appreciated.

Sincerely,

Raul G. Reichard
