Gentlemen:

This is written in behalf of the nomination of John Rex for Fellowship as proposed by the Southern California Chapter, A.I.A.

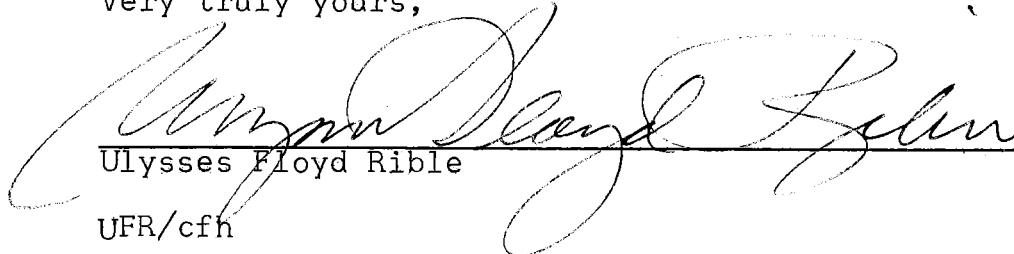

The technical supporting data in behalf of Mr. Rex's nomination has doubtless been filed with you. It may nonetheless be appropriate for me, among others, to add my recommendation for your favorable attention to this nomination.

Mr. Rex has been an outstanding leader and former president in the Southern California Chapter. For many years he was extremely active in leadership of the State association of architects, and after formation of the California Council, A.I.A., he served as its president.

In addition to extensive contributions made by Mr. Rex to the profession in this State, he has identified himself as one of its foremost designers as testified by the many outstanding buildings that have been his trust to execute.

Thank you for consideration of this communication.

Very truly yours,

Ulysses Floyd Rible

RE: Fellowship Nomination
John L. Rex

Gentlemen:

Mr. John Rex has been an outstanding addition to the architectural profession in this State and I wish to go on record in support of his nomination for a Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

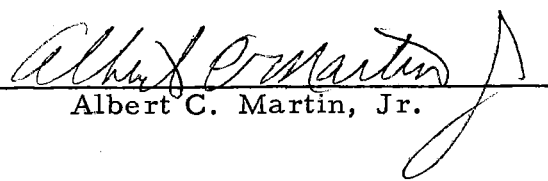

His leadership, interest and participation in not only Civic affairs but also in the American Institute of Architects plus his many contributions to the field of architecture make him very worthy of your consideration.

I cannot recommend him too highly.

Sincerely yours,

Attention Jury of Fellows

Gentlemen:

It is my pleasure to speak for Mr. John Rex, a nominee for a Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

I have known Mr. Rex personally for over 20 years as a colleague and office of our Chapter and as a partner in a joint venture on a major Civic Center Building in Los Angeles.

I cannot speak too highly of Mr. Rex's personal integrity or his professional performance and knowledge. Certainly, John Rex, in my opinion, is worthy of elevation to Fellowship in the Institute.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen

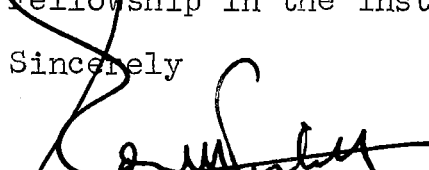

I first met Mr. John Rex in the office of Sumner Spaulding, F. A. I. A. in the summer of 1935. At that time I was a young student out of school for the summer. John Rex was working as a designer and I had the privilege of working under him during these few summer months.

In 1938 I was given the opportunity of working in the same office as a draftsman and I was privileged to continue working for this firm until 1941.

During these early years, a young architect formulates his thinking which in later years becomes the backbone of his practice. Working under John Rex in the office of Sumner Spaulding was, I believe, partially responsible for my present professional success. I regard John Rex not only as a personal friend but as a man whose professional accomplishments, character, and integrity certainly reflect a great credit to the Institute.

Mr. Rex's years of outstanding service as president of the Southern California Chapter and the California Council of Architects are definitely responsible for formulating policies which in later years were directly responsible for the tremendous growth of this profession. As a personal friend of Mr. John Rex, it is a privilege to recommend him for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute.

Sincerely

Edward H. Fickett, A. I. A.

Gentlemen:

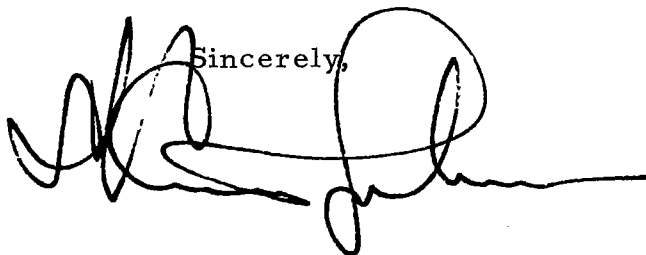

I am pleased to place in nomination for Fellowship, the name of John Rex, A. I. A., Southern California Chapter.

I have known John Rex for over twenty years. His work and his service to the profession and for the public is recognized by the architects in this area as outstanding, and he is the recipient of numerous design awards. He has served on various architectural juries, and for several years has taught at the University of California at Los Angeles.

John Rex's service to the profession includes serving as a Director for the Southern California Chapter in 1946-47-48 and 1951; as Vice President in 1949; and as President in 1950. He was President of the California Council of The American Institute of Architects in 1951, and has served on many Chapter committees, State and National, through the years. In addition he has served the public of Los Angeles on various committees of both civil and cultural organizations.

I respectfully request your consideration for nomination of John Rex.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my hearty desire and pleasure in seconding the nomination of Mr. Rex for Fellowship in the Institute.

John is a long time friend of mine from collegiate days at the University of Southern California. He is an extremely capable designer and has received many awards and honors. He also has been a very active force in teaching the younger architects of this area the principles of our profession.

He has served the Institute at Chapter, Council and Institute levels. He is Past President of the Southern California Chapter and the California Council of Architects.

It is my sincere belief that Mr. Rex is worthy of advancement to Fellowship in the Institute for Achievement in Design and Service to the Institute.

Gentlemen:

This is addressed to you in behalf of Mr. John L. Rex, who has been nominated by the Southern California Chapter for advancement to Fellowship in the field of "Design" and in "Service to the Institute."

It has been my pleasure to have known Mr. Rex for more than twenty years, and I feel therefore qualified to offer this "second" in support of his nomination.

A detailed record of Mr. Rex's accomplishments has been made available to you, but I can speak first-hand in support of his excellence of design and of his innate ability to integrate all of the facets of design in a successful manner.

No architect in Southern California more highly deserves recognition in the field of "Service to the Institute" than does Mr. Rex. His continuing leadership spreads over a period exceeding a decade and includes presidency of the Southern California Chapter as well as presidency of the California Council, A.I.A. He has further been very active in civic affairs, particularly having to do with art and construction. He has served as president of the Museum Association and as chairman of the Board of Zoning Appeals of the City of Los Angeles, among several others.

Your sympathetic attention to the nomination of Mr. Rex is respectfully suggested.

Gentlemen -

You have before you for consideration, the election of John Leon Rex as a Fellow. I should like to give my support to Mr. Rex.

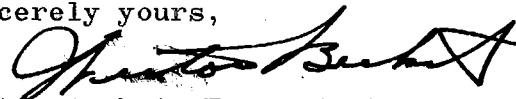

In our Southern California Chapter of the A. I. A. he has been given five awards for outstanding contribution to design, some of these projects being the Ekdale residence in San Pedro, and the Robbins residence in Los Angeles; the Westchester Junior High School in Los Angeles, Pomona College Men's dormitory, in Claremont, and the Piness building in Los Angeles.

Mr. Rex is responsible for the design of a course covering architecture as related to engineering at the University of California at Los Angeles where he is a member of the faculty of the School of Engineering. This course is the only one of its kind known in the country.

His service to the Institute and our community has been a very active and successful one. He has been Director, Vice President and President of our chapter, and was on the Advisory Committee of Architects to the Council on Planning and Plant operations, Association of California Hospitals, Chairman of the State Recreation Plan, and Chairman of the Board of Zoning Appeals for the city.

With all sincerity, I wish to recommend Mr. Rex to the Fellowship.

Dear Sirs:

I wish to endorse the nomination of John L. Rex, A.I.A. for Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

It is difficult for me in a brief letter to single out and list a few of Mr. Rex's many achievements that have advanced the profession of Architecture. Therefore, in this letter I am mindfully omitting the listing of achievements which I am sure many others will touch upon in support of Mr. Rex's deserving honor.

One of the highlights of the many achievements of Mr. Rex was his support and active participation in the Student Chapter program of the A.I. A. Mr. Rex almost single handedly brought about the Chartering of the A.I.A. Student Chapter at the College of Architecture, University of Southern California. In recognition of the years of work that Mr. Rex contributed to this program, Mr. Rex was made chairman of the Charter Presentation ceremonies.

Mr. Rex has been very active in improving the College of Architecture at the University of Southern California. As far back as 1940 Mr. Rex Chairmanned Committees which formulated programs and tendered suggestions to the Office of the President of the University of Southern California upon the needs of the College of Architecture for better qualified professors, more forward thinking visiting Critics and a sounder leadership with a highly qualified administrative Dean. These efforts by Mr. Rex has over these years has resulted in vast improvements at the College of Architecture at the University of Southern California.

Mr. Rex has for many years served on the Education Committee of the Southern California Chapter of the A.I.A. Mr. Rex achieved the fulfillment of very active programs while serving as chairman of this committee.

Mr. Rex as President of the Southern California Chapter of the A.I.A. achieved improved administration and increased membership and interest in A.I.A. Chapter affairs.

My personal contact with Mr. Rex came in 1941 when I was a junior draftsman in the design office on a joint venture of John C. Austin, F.A.I.A. and the late Summer Spaulding. In this office I had the opportunity to observe first hand the outstanding design ability of Mr. Rex as he performed the work of Chief Designer on the Los Angeles Municipal Airport Administration Building.

In late 1941 and after Mr. Rex headed the design office at the U.S. Navy Roosevelt Base at Terminal Island, Long Beach, California. I was privileged to also be employed in this office for a brief time. I had the opportunity to observe Mr. Rex working under Navy direction in war time emergency. Mr. Rex was instrumental in gaining much recognition for the benefits of Architectural design in the Navy building program.

Mr. Rex achieved a great amount of unity among California Architects as he served as President of the California Council of Architects.

Gentlemen:

The name of John Leon Rex has been proposed by the Southern California Chapter for advancement to fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

The accomplishments of Mr. Rex in the field of architecture are well known throughout Southern California. His work has been singled out for excellence in design by the Southern California Chapter on several occasions. Mr. Rex has given generously of his time and efforts in the interest of the Institute and the community. For many years he acted as Director of the Southern California Chapter, and during the year 1950 he was President of this Chapter.

As a member of the faculty of the School of Engineering at the University of California at Los Angeles, Mr. Rex was responsible for the design of a course for graduate students, which course defines the relationship of the architect to the various engineering phases of the building industry, and their relationship to one another.

It is a privilege to support the nomination for which the Chapter has recommended Mr. Rex and to invite your favorable consideration of his nomination.

Very truly yours,

I am greatly delighted to know that John Leon Rex has been proposed for Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

I am presently employed by Mr. Rex and find that his desire to do significant architecture is most stimulating as well as rewarding. He and his partner, Douglas Honnold F.A.I.A., have set up an atmosphere in their office where there is a constant awareness and searching for good architecture.

Mr. Rex has also contributed greatly in making the lay public aware of architecture and the important contribution it can make to man. He has served as moderator for the Architectural Panel on their panel discussion "Pioneers of New Ideas in California Architecture" in relationship to the exhibit "Roots of California Contemporary Architecture", an exhibition of the 1900-1935 work of Irving Gill, Greene & Greene, Bernard Maybeck, Richard Neutra, R. M. Schindler and Frank Lloyd Wright. He was instrumental in bringing Felix Candella to the Southern California area to speak on his work.

When one thinks of how best one can serve the architectural profession, he can think of no better way than to bring the profession to the people and the community he lives in. This, in my opinion, is what Mr. Rex has done.

Sincerely,

BERNARD ZIMMERMAN A.I.A.

Gentlemen:

I understand that John L. Rex has been proposed for Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects. We were classmates at the University of Southern California where we received our Bachelor of Architecture degrees in 1932, so I have known him for 30 years.

Mr. Rex's achievement in design and service to the Institute have been noteworthy. He has received five honor awards by the Southern California Chapter for outstanding contribution in design. His service to the Institute and the community includes holding the positions of Director, Vice-President and President of the Southern California Chapter, President of the California Council, A.I.A., President of the Los Angeles County Museum Association, chairman of the Los Angeles City Board of Zoning Appeals, and others.

We can recommend him as a man of very high ability and one well qualified to receive the honor being proposed for him.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

It has come to my attention that Mr. John Leon Rex has been proposed by the Southern California Chapter as a nominee for elevation to Fellowship in the Institute.

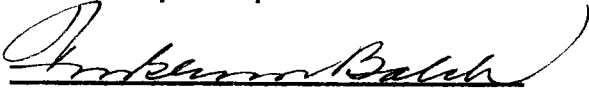

Mr. Rex has attained an outstanding reputation in this area for his design ability. He is held in high regard by his colleagues, and the number of outstanding buildings he has designed result in the high standing he has achieved. Mr. Rex has devoted a considerable amount of time to education work, as a Visiting Critic for Fifth Year Architectural Design at the University of Southern California and is a member of the faculty of the School of Engineering at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Mr. Rex is also outstanding in his service to the Institute, having been a Director of the Southern California Chapter for three years, a Vice President for one year and President for one year. In 1951 he served as the President of the California Council, The American Institute of Architects.

In regard to community service, he has served as the President of the Museum Association of Los Angeles County, has served on the Advisory Committee of Architects to the Council on Planning and Plant Operations, Association of California Hospitals. He has been Chairman of the State Recreation Plan, Youth Service Committee of the Los Angeles Welfare Federation and has been Chairman of the Board of Zoning Appeals for the City of Los Angeles in 1955, 1956 and 1957.

I feel that the outstanding record of this man qualifies him in every respect for the honor of elevation to Fellowship. May I ask your careful and favorable consideration.

Yours very truly

Gentlemen:

Re: John L. Rex

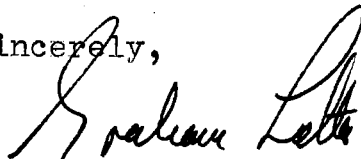

I have known John Rex since the time preceeding his partnership with the late Sumner Spaulding, F.A.I.A. - when the dormitories at Claremont were exciting in their union of architecture and painting and when the Ekdale residence at San Pedro was so far in advance of its times.

I have continued to know him through later work and through his service to the profession in our Chapter and in the California Council.

My most recent contact was only yesterday. Four different firms, including Honnold and Rex and myself, are doing branch libraries for Los Angeles. Yesterday I saw all four preliminaries. Time may well prove that the Honnold and Rex scheme is the simplest, cleanest and most direct of the four.

I am sure that John Rex has the qualification to carry on the traditions of Fellowship.

Sincerely,

GRAHAM LATTA, Architect

Gentlemen:

I am pleased to learn that the Southern California Chapter has nominated John Rex for a fellowship. This permits me the opportunity to urge your most favorable consideration of his achievements in design and outstanding service to the Institute.

The aesthetic quality of work done by Mr. Rex has been consistently excellent in varying associations and circumstances, marking a level for others to strive for. Also, I am conscious of a singular contribution he has made to the profession in his own community. None other of our Chapter members is so widely known personally and held in such high esteem. This has enhanced the stature of architects among our civic and cultural leaders.

Mr. Rex's advancement to fellowship would be a credit to our profession and gratifying to many of his colleagues.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

The Southern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects has recently nominated John Rex to fellowship in the Institute for his achievements in design.

I have known Mr. Rex and followed his professional career for the past fifteen years, and I know of no one more worthy of this recognition. Mr. Rex has been a devoted member of the Institute, serving on local and national committees as well as accepting the responsibilities of leadership among the members of our profession. His contribution to design in this area has been a great influence on many of us who have followed his work.

I would like very much to add my endorsement to that of others for the elevation of John Rex to fellowship.

Gentlemen:

I should like to very strongly recommend John Leon Rex for your consideration for Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects. Mr. Rex has been for many years very active in Chapter affairs and in addition - and much more important in my humble estimation for the high honor of Fellowship - is one of Southern California's very few top designers.

To Members of The Executive Committee, Southern California Chapter, A.I.A.

An architect is advanced to Fellowship in recognition of exceptional ability or of exceptional service. The Jury of Fellows always tries to choose wisely and with discrimination, but it is limited in precise knowledge about the nominees.

To complete Nomination this form must be filled and returned before February 1st. Otherwise, no action will be taken at the forthcoming Jury meeting.

It is the opinion of the Jury of Fellows that a designer, however talented, should not be advanced to Fellowship if he possesses deficiencies of character which reflect discredit upon the profession; and that no architect, regardless of outstanding service, should be advanced if the buildings which he has designed are so notably inferior in architectural design as to reflect discredit upon the profession.

To help the Jury learn such aspects, which are not normally completely supplied through regular nomination procedure, fill in the lines below which in your opinion apply to John L. Rex, A.I.A. and return this sheet in the addressed envelope provided.

1. Has he many friends who speak well of him? Yes

2. Do they also vouch for his accomplishments? Yes

3. Would his ethics be acceptable in business? Yes

4. What is your opinion of his character? Outstanding. Mr Rex is a leader of the profession in this state.
