Attention: Mr. Preston M. Bolton, FAIA

Dear Mr. Bolton:

I acknowledge your letter of November 15, 1972 regarding non-payment of my 1972 dues.

I regret exceedingly that I cannot pay these dues immediately though I hope to be able to pay them by the end of the year. As you probably are aware, most architects have suffered severe financial difficulties the past two years due to lack of business and slow collections from clients. I am beginning to work my way out of this bind and pay off debts, but I just can't pay all at once.

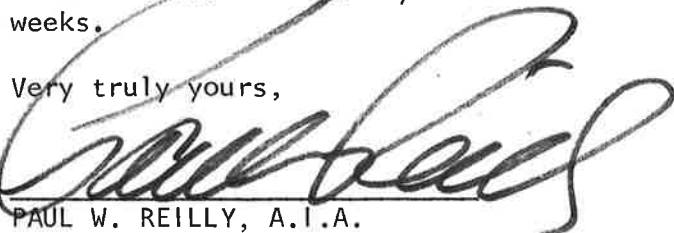

I am moving my offices from New York to New Jersey on December 22, 1972 as the new work coming in is in the New Jersey area. This will help reduce my expenses due to savings in travel to and from New York City, as well as a saving in travel time.

My new address as of December 22, 1972 will be:

45 WEST RIVER ROAD
Rumson, N. J. 07760

I do not want to lose my membership in the American Institute of Architects and trust you can bear with me for the next few weeks.

Dear Mr. Reilly:

We were sorry to receive your letter of November 22 explaining the financial difficulties you have been experiencing.

You may want to write your local chapter to consider waiving your local dues and recommending that we follow suit. Unless the matter is cleared up by payment or waiver by January 20, 1973, it will be necessary to go ahead with final action and terminate your membership.

We sincerely hope the coming year is brighter.

Dear Mr. Reilly:

Thank you for your check for $88 covering 1972 regular dues.

However, the termination action is considered final and in order to reinstate your membership we will need the approval of your local chapter and additional payment as follows:

- 1972 supplemental dues (4% of FICA tax paid in 1971
~~1971~~ multiplied by your percentage of participation in your firm) or, if you are not liable for them, your written statement to that effect
- 1973 regular dues - $91
- 1973 supplemental dues (same as above except the percentage of FICA tax is 5%)
- * Readmission fee for people who have been terminated - $88

* The fee may be reduced to $10 by the Secretary under extenuating circumstances; if you wish to have such special action considered, please explain your reasons.

We are holding your check with the hope that we will receive your early response to the above, and the approval of your chapter.

Dear Mr. Reilly,

Please be advised that, since you are no longer a member of our Society or the AIA in Washington, you will have to remove the letters AIA after your name from all of your stationery, checks, etc. The letters are a designation of membership.

If, in the future, you become a member in good standing once again, the use of the letters will be permissible. However, unless I hear from the American Institute of Architects in Washington that your membership has been restored I must ask you to immediately remove the letters and not to use them in the future.

I hope to hear that you have renewed your membership soon.

Sincerely,

Irene Bacchi

INSTRUCTIONS/GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Please type or print the information and sign. Be sure to check the appropriate boxes. It is your responsibility to obtain your sponsors' signatures, even if reapplying.
2. Attach a check for the correct amount of national dues and fee, as explained elsewhere in these instructions.
3. Local chapter/state dues are separate from national dues. The chapter can provide additional instructions and information pertaining to local dues.
4. Mail the application and check to the Secretary of the local chapter. Please be sure to include evidence of current registration.

FEES/DUES FOR 1ST TIME APPLICANTS: $70 represents the 1st year's dues ($60) and the admission fee ($10).

DUES FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERS APPLYING FOR FULL MEMBERSHIP: $60 represents the first year's dues. You may deduct any national associate dues which you paid this year.

Special Dues Rate For Newly Licensed Architects: If initially registered no more than one year prior to this application and if the local chapter and state have established the same 50% reduction locally, $30 represents the 1st year's dues, and the $10 fee, if applicable. Please check with your local chapter to see if this reduced rate applies.

FEES/DUES FOR FORMER AIA MEMBERS: $180 represents current maximum regular dues ($130) and the readmission fee ($50) plus current AIA supplemental dues or nonliability statement, as stated below, and any past obligations to the national AIA. (You may wish to contact the Institute to ascertain the latter.)

Supplemental Dues: Every member and former member "who is an owner or manager in an organization using registered architects to perform services for the public" is liable for supplemental dues. To satisfy this requirement, all former members must check the appropriate designation as follows:

- a. I have no ownership or managerial position in a firm which offers professional services and am not liable for supplemental dues.

- c. I have ownership or managerial position in a firm which offers professional services and the computation is as follows:

Number of registered architects in firm (both employees and owners) as of January 2. _____ x $170.00 = $ _____

Subtract number of registered architects in firm (both employees and owners) who are members of AIA, including you. Please attach a list of their names. _____ x $100.00 = $ _____

TOTAL SUPPLEMENTAL DUES $ _____

Eligibility: Every architect who is a legal resident of and has been granted a license or registration by any state, the District of Columbia, or any territory of the United States may apply for membership via the AIA chapter serving the area in which the architect lives or works.

Rights/Privileges: Upon admission to membership by the national AIA, the architect is entitled to all the rights and privileges which accompany membership and may proclaim this recognition by the use of the initials "AIA" or use of the title "Member of the American Institute of Architects."

National Dues: $60-1st year; $85-2nd year which begins January 1, following admission; $130-third and subsequent years. In addition, members who have ownership in firms are liable for supplemental dues the second year of membership. These dues are $170 per registered architect in the firm minus $100 per registered architect who is an AIA member.

When admitted during the last half of the calendar fiscal year, one-half of the annual dues paid with the application will be credited to next year's dues, except in situations in which a person is dropped and readmitted the same year.

Local Dues/Assignment: Upon admission, the member becomes a member of the national AIA, the local chapter and the state organization and is obligated for dues to each.

Additional information about membership may be obtained from local chapter or from the American Institute of Architects, 1735 New York Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20006, (202) 626-7300.
