Mr. E. C. Kemper
Executive Secretary, A.I.A.
The Octagon House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

The following is the resolution passed by the Phila. Chapter, A.I.A. in connection with the death of

Mr. George T. Pearson
125 West Walnut Lane
Germantown, Pa.

RESOLVED:

The Philadelphia Chapter, American Institute of Architects records with great regret the death of its old and valued member, George T. Pearson, which took place at his home in Germantown, January 9, 1920.

Up to the time of his death, Mr. Pearson remained an active and loyal member of the Chapter of which he was a Charter Member. He was a man of wide and varied experience in his profession and took an important part in the designing and construction of many of the most important buildings in the city.

The Chapter desires to enter on its minutes its appreciation of his work and of his long continued interest in the advancement of his profession.

Very truly yours,

Secretary, Phila. Chapter
A.I.A.
