Mr. J. Roy Carroll, F.A.I.A.

Dear Mr. Carroll:

Approximately eight years ago I moved from the Borough of Brooklyn to Westchester County in New York State. Subsequent to my moving, I have found it practically impossible for me to actively participate in the functions of the Brooklyn Chapter of the A. I. A. I should like to take an active part in the activities of the American Institute of Architects and feel that the only way I can do this is by becoming a member of a chapter closer to my residence.

I therefore wish to resign from the Brooklyn Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and wish to apply for membership in the Westchester Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Please advise me what procedures I must follow in order to fulfill the aforementioned desire.

Very truly yours,

Vincent Pellegrino
