My dear Mr. Ramsey:-

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective July 1, 1921.

You have been assigned to the Columbus Chapter as an Institute member in good standing therein, and the Secretary of the Chapter has been so notified.

The enclosed statement for dues should receive early attention, as the engrossed Certificate of Membership is not sent until dues for the first year have been paid. No charge has been made for the first half of the current year.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Secretary at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise we shall be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Edward A. Ramsey,
151 E. Broad Street,
Columbus, Ohio.

December 10-1923.

Dear Mr. Ramsey:-

It was with regret that the Treasurer had to report to the Officers and Directors of the Institute at their last meeting a large amount still in default covering payment of current dues.

The Directors discussed the matter seriously as the money is needed to meet the balance of our obligations for the year and moreover it seemed to them not quite fair that members who have paid their dues are not only meeting their own obligations, but assisting to pay the cash expense necessary to supply the Journal, etc., to those members who have not paid their dues. The Directors passed the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that those members delinquent for more than one year on January 1, 1924, be given until February 1, 1924, to make payment in whole or to reach some agreement with the Treasurer as to future payment. Othorwise the Institute membership of each delinquent coming under this resolution shall be terminated on March 1, 1924, upon notice to him from the Secretary to that effect.

I am sending you this as an appeal to make a remittance to the Treasurer of $40.00, including dues for 1923 which, as you know, were payable eleven months ago.

I trust that you will write me promptly and also frankly if for any reason you cannot pay all or any part of the amount at the present moment.

Hoping that you will do your part to help the Treasurer make a better report at the next meeting of the Board of Directors, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Treasurer.

May 6, 1924.

My dear Mr. Ramsey:-

Your indebtedness to the Institute for dues is $60.00, including the current year.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors last November a resolution was adopted to the effect that each delinquent who owed for two years or more on January 1, 1924, should be removed from Institute and Chapter membership unless he made a satisfactory payment on account or some arrangement with the Treasurer, on or before March 1, 1924.

You have received several letters and telegrams from the Treasurer about this matter and according to the records at the Octagon House you have not found it possible to meet the liberal conditions contained in the resolution, thereby saving your Membership.

This situation is much regretted, for the Institute Officers and Directors are loath to lose a member for financial reasons, but fairness to those who are paying dues and supporting the work of the Society prevent further delay. This will formally advise you of the discontinuance of your Institute and Chapter membership, effective March 1, 1924.

The Secretary of your Chapter has been so advised through a copy of this letter.

On behalf of the Treasurer and the Secretary, I express the hope that improved business conditions will soon permit you to meet your obligation now standing on the Institute Books, and at the same time to apply for reinstatement.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Edward A. Ramsey,
2124 Indiana Ave.,
Columbus, Ohio.

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Kempton:

As requested in your letter of June 6th, we have forwarded a copy of the A.I.A. Filing System to Mr. William Mills, Nelsonville, Ohio, and two copies went to your office. No doubt you have them by now.

Responding to your inquiry about the status of Mr. Edward A. Ramsey, formerly a member of The Institute, we find that his previous membership terminated on March 1, 1924, at which time he owed for A.I.A. dues for 1922 and 1923 in the total amount of $40.00.

If he should wish to apply for readmission, that amount should be paid for his past dues, plus $30.00 - $5.00 of which is for the readmission fee and $25.00 for one year's dues in advance.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Director

Gentlemen:

Perhaps I am getting old and out of harmony with present day activities and methods. (I still am old fashioned enough to expect a treasurer to keep his records straight.) At any rate, I have lost my enthusiasm for much that the Institute is doing today, such as public relations (advertising to me), insurance, women's auxiliaries, etc. I have the queer notion that the Institute should be a professional, rather than a social organization and that the greater part of its literature concerning contemporary projects is mere loquaciousness. Nor am I enthusiastic about modern architectural education.

Therefore, with deep regret I herewith tender my resignation.

Sincerely,

Edward A. Ramsey
