Dear George:

The conclusion of your chairmanship of The Institute Committee on The Octagon House must not pass without a word of commendation and hearty thanks for your labors.

When one realizes that the basis of all Institute progress and accomplishment is the thought, judgment, and achievement of its committees, our acknowledgment and appreciation cannot even approximate an adequate recompense for the work of you committee chairmen and your loyal members. The debt we owe you cannot be paid, but it can and must be freely acknowledged with deep gratitude.

Now that this particular term of service has been completed, I trust you will realize that this is not retirement but rather a brief rest period after which you will again bear a notable share of the responsibility for The Institute's march of progress.

With highest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Philip Will, Jr., FAIA

Dear Mr. Roberts:

We have received your recent letter tendering your resignation.

It seems that you may be eligible for election as a Member Emeritus, which, upon election, will permit you to remain in the AIA with full rights and privileges, while being relieved of further dues payments to the AIA and your local chapter.

If you qualify under one or more of the three conditions set forth on the enclosed application form, please check that condition off, sign and return the form to this office. Upon its receipt, we shall be glad to see that the proper action is taken.

On the other hand, if you do not qualify or are not interested in remaining in the AIA, please let us hear further from you and your resignation will be accepted.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Manager
