Mr. D. Everett Waid, Treas., Octagon House, American Institute of Archts., Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

On Nov. 18th last we sent you our check for $5.00 in payment for the "Journal" for the year 1922. Since that time all the members of our firm, namely F.S.Robinson, A.B.Campau, and C.A.Crowe have become members of your Institute and are entitled to the "Journal", therefore we will have no use for the one our firm has subscribed for, and we were wondering if we could not make some adjustment of our subscription toward the dues of the above members, check for which we will shortly mail you. So far we have received the January issue on our subscription.

Awaiting with interest your reply, we remain,

Yours very truly,

FSR-W

Responding to yours of January 30, it is essential that we send the Journal to every member of the Institute because it contains official notices which are legally binding on each Member.

With reference to the subscriptions to the Journal made before your Institute membership came about, I suggest that you write fully to the Editor, Mr. C. H. Whitaker, 313 East 23rd Street, New York City. I am sure Mr. Whitaker will gladly make such readjustment as may be required.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.
