THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

July 17, 1974

Mr. Louis H. Geis

Dear Mr. Geis:

According to the provisions of a Bylaw change voted by delegates to the 1972 AIA Convention, any member who fails to pay the entire amount of his regular and/or supplemental dues for the current year on or before June 30 must be considered in default, and notified of impending termination. This also applies to members who have paid their regular dues but who have failed to report that they are not liable for supplemental dues when this is the case.

The Bylaws provide that the membership of any member who is in default for nonpayment of dues as of August 31 must be terminated, provided that the member has been notified in writing by the secretary at least 30 days prior to the termination action. After August 31, in order to be reinstated in 1974, it will be necessary to pay not only the dues in arrears, but also a reinstatement fee of $48.00. ($53.00 after January 1, 1975)

Our records, which reflect dues payments received through June 30, 1974 show your 1974 dues as still unpaid. If you believe these records to be in error, please reply at once to the Office of the Controller, The American Institute of Architects, 1735 New York Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20006.

The invoice(s) enclosed indicates that you have either not responded to previous notices, or that you have not paid regular or supplemental dues. The deadline for receipt of these payments is August 31, 1974.

While this letter will serve as the required notice of impending termination, I hope you will treat it as a reminder, and that you will send your check along with the enclosed invoice right away. Your membership is valuable to the Institute, and I know that your officers and directors join me in hoping that you will be able to maintain it without interruption.

Sincerely,

Hilliard T. Smith Jr.

Dear Mr. Geis:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your application for Membership Emeritus. We are sorry to have to report that you are not eligible, inasmuch as you are not retired.

To be eligible, as the form indicates, you must be at least 60, retired and not engaged in architecture; more than 70, in which case you do not have to be retired; or unable to engage in architecture because of physical disability.

Please let us hear from you again when you retire or reach 70 whichever comes first.

Re: Louis H. Geis

Can we impose on you to do us a favor and find out what Mr. Geis does at HUD and how long he's been there?

He has applied for Membership Emeritus, as you know. I don't think he's eligible, but if his duties are not related to architecture (in the broad sense of the word), he may be.

In any case, I'm sure Hilliard will want a description of his duties before making a final decision.

The requirement that one has to be over 60, retired and not engaged in architecture is not one which can be waived by the Secretary or Board.

I regret to inform you that we cannot act on your application for Membership Emeritus inasmuch as you are not eligible at this time.

I hope you will bring your dues up to date and remain in the Institute until such time as you are eligible. This will occur when you reach 70 or when you retire from HUD.

If you are interested in remaining, please send your check for $96 within thirty days from now; otherwise, it will be necessary to take termination action.
