Re: Membership 002691509

Gentlemen:

I am now an "emeritus member" of the Texas Society of Architects. I did not elect to pay the minimum charge to receive the monthly publication of the AIA. I value my association with both the TSA and the AIA and wanted to continue. If there is a charge to maintain my relationship with the American Institute of Architects, I would appreciate your advising. Also, my AIA Executive Card expired 3-31-87. I would appreciate your advising how I might secure a current one.

Yours very truly,

Preston M. Geren, Jr., F.A.I.A.

Please complete and return to us with your payment of $40.00; this will enable you to once again start receiving mailings and publications from the AIA.

You may wish to wait until the beginning of 1988 to do this, since there is no prororation of dues for Emeritus Memberships.

Please call if you have a question about this.
