Dear Sir:-

I thank you very much for your letter dated Nov. 17th last in which you gave me some information about Mr John Graham of Seattle, Washington, U.S.

May I trouble you again for a little more explicit explanation. Is Mr Graham a member of your association or only an associate member, as he says in his application for membership in our Association?.

Thanking you in advance for your kind answer,

I remain,

Yours truly,

J. Emile Vanier

Dear Sir;

Re circular dated Jan. 27th, 1923.

I notice the name of Alexander N. Knox as applicant for admission to the Institute under the Washington State Chapter. I understand Mr. Knox to be a draftsman working in a local office and that he is not now and never has been a practicing architect. I have always understood that the rules of the Institute confined membership to practicing architects. Please inform me if I am correct.

Yours very truly,

John Graham

Dear Mr. Graham:-

In response to yours of the 5th, I enclose marked copy of the By-laws showing that a draftsman may be eligible for Institute membership.

Should you desire to object to the election of Mr. Knox we should have your letter by February 27, as the time limit expires then. Such a letter would be treated as strictly confidential and would bring about a further investigation of Mr. Knox.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary/

Mr. John Graham,

And twill sting you for your pains;
Grasp it like a man of metal
And it soft as silk remains.

'Tis the same with official natures,
Treat them kindly, they rebel
But be harsh as nutmeg graters
And the rogues will serve you well.
