A member, by virtue of his membership in The Institute, becomes a member of the chapter of The Institute within the territory of which he resides or has his place of business, as he elects, but he pays an admission fee to The Institute only. The admission fee to membership in The Institute normally is twenty-five dollars. (For 1936 this fee was reduced to five dollars.)

A member pays annual dues both to The Institute and to the chapter. The annual dues to The Institute normally are twenty-five dollars (for 1936 Institute dues were reduced to twenty dollars) and those to the chapter are fixed in its by-laws.

Normally the period between the time of filing an application and the time it is acted on by The Board of The Institute is four months. The period will be longer if the application must be returned to the applicant for corrections or if additional exhibits of the applicant's work are required by The Board of Examiners.

If an application is denied, the amount prepaid by the applicant for annual dues and for admission fee, less five dollars for examination fee, will be returned to him.

An applicant whose application has been denied without prejudice may reapply for admission to membership a year or more after the date of The Secretary's notice to him of his non-admission.

Dear Mr. Bradbury:

Thank you for your letter of February 22 about Mr. D.

It seems that he may be eligible for Membership Emeritus which would allow him to continue with full rights and privileges while being relieved of further dues payments.

Would you please ask him to complete the enclosed form and return it to us, whereupon we will simply cancel the termination action and effect his election as of January 1, 1970 provided, of course, that he does qualify under one of the three conditions set forth on the form.

Please let me know if this doesn't solve the problem or if there are any questions.
