Mr. Frederick P. Hill,

New York.

Dear Sir:-

It is with pleasure I notify you that you were elected a Member of the American Institute of Architects by the Board of Directors at their meeting March 5th, 1912. A formal certificate will be forwarded to you later.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:-

I am in receipt of your bill for dues for 1919.

On Dec. 12th, 1918, I wrote the Institute, as follows:-

"I hereby tender my resignation as a Member of the American Institute, the same to take effect at the expiration of the current year for which my dues are paid."

My stenographer mailed the letter to 215 W. 57th St., but as it was addressed to the American Institute of Architects, it has probably been forwarded to the Washington office.

Very truly yours,

Frederick P. Hill

January 9th-1919.

Dear Sir:-

Permit me to acknowledge yours of January 2nd and to say that I can find no record of your letter of December 12th tendering your resignation as a member of the Institute.

Under Article IV, Section 3 of the Institute By-laws, as amended at the last Convention, a resignation should be made in writing to the Board of Directors of the Institute, and addressed to the Secretary of the members chapter, who shall then promptly submit it to the Executive Committee of the Chapter for consideration. After consideration by the Executive Committee of the Chapter, unless the resignation be withdrawn, it is sent with a statement regarding the members financial obligations to the Chapter, and such further comment as the Executive may deem desirable, to the Secretary of the Institute for official action.

This is the new procedure adopted by the last Convention (see page 28 of the Proceedings) and must be complied with before a resignation can properly be placed before the Board of Directors.

An insistence upon the procedure is required of us here at the Octagon, and I trust you will not attribute to this letter a desire to be technical.

By direction of the Secretary.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Frederick P. Hill,
299 Madison Avenue,
New York. N.Y.

Executive Secretary.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of yours of the 9th inst.

My resignation of Dec. 12th was inadvertently addressed to the New York Chapter, so that it would seem as if I had complied more or less with the requirements. I must confess that under the circumstances it does seem as if there is quite some technicality in the matter. However, I will go through the form above in case what I have already done is not sufficient.

I think it should be taken into consideration that my resignation was intended to take effect before the dues of the current year were due.

Very truly yours,

Frederick P. Hill

Board of Directors of
The American Institute of Architects.

Dear Sirs:-

On Dec. 12th I wrote a letter of resignation as a Member of the Institute and the same was mailed to the Secretary of the New York Chapter.

On Jan. 7th I received a letter from the Secretary of the Chapter, Mr. Stowe Phelps, saying that he acknowledged receipt of my communication of Dec. 12th, but was not sure whether it was intended for the American Institute of Architects or the New York Chapter, and that he was returning the communication. It was not returned to me, and I therefore supposed that it had been forwarded to you.

I enclose a copy of my letter of Dec. 12th, and ask that prompt action be taken.

Very truly yours,

Sent to

Mr. E. Kemper, Executive Secretary
American Institute of Architects,
The Octagon House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

I have now twice sent my resignation to the American Institute to the New York Chapter and have had no acceptance as yet. I do not understand the delay since I did it the first time on Dec. 12th, as to the best of my knowledge and belief I am in good standing, have no charges against me and no complications of any sort.

I am particularly anxious for special reasons to have my resignation accepted before the first of February, and hope that it may be put through that way. While you, of course, are not in any way responsible for the original delay or failure to forward my resignation of Dec. 12th, nevertheless the fact remains that several weeks have elapsed and it does not seem fair to me to allow any more time to elapse.

Very truly yours,

Frederick P. Hill

Dear Sir:-

Permit me to acknowledge yours of January 24th and to say that so far we have received no communication from the New York Chapter concerning your resignation. As soon as such communication is received, with the resignation attached, it will be brought before the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors of the Institute for action. As there is no meeting of the Board or the Executive Committee scheduled until the latter part of April, it will be necessary to submit your resignation by correspondence and it would be difficult to get this accomplished by February 1st, even if we should receive promptly the expected communication from the New York Chapter.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Question:

DATE February 7th-1919

Shall the resignation of Mr. Frederick P. Hill be accepted, effective December 31, 1918.

Mr. Hill is in good standing as an Institute member, and the Secretary of the New York Chapter writes, in a letter of February 4th, that his dues to the Chapter are paid and that he is in good standing therein.

Mr. Hill is anxious to have his resignation accepted at an early date.

Please send your vote to the Octagon as soon as convenient.

By direction of the Secretary.
