Dear Mr. Rush:

Permit me to acknowledge with gratification, and on behalf of the Secretary, your application for membership in The American Institute of Architects, received by reference from the Secretary of the St. Louis Chapter, together with your check for the Initiation Fee.

We wish to call to your attention that the following items will be necessary in order to complete your application:

- (1) Payment of the first year's Annual Dues of $25.00, which, for the new member, are payable in advance. These dues are applied, of course, to the first twelve months following election.
- (2) The submission of the customary, routine exhibits, which should consist of working drawings and photographs of two completed buildings. These drawings may be taken from the office files and need not be specially prepared. They are carefully returned in due course.

Upon the receipt of the above items we shall be glad to put your application forward to election.

May we not hear from you soon?

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Rush:

On May 16, 1930, we wrote to you with regard to your application for membership in The American Institute of Architects.

Our records do not indicate that we have heard anything further from you, or received your check for your first year's dues in advance, or the photographs and working drawings of two executed buildings as exhibits of your architectural work, which are necessary in order to complete your application.

We are taking the liberty of calling this to your attention, now, in case it has been overlooked, and it is hoped that you can take care of these items within the next few weeks, so that your application may be brought before the Board of Directors at its November meeting for consideration.

If you could do this, election could be secured by the first of the year; otherwise there will be a delay until the next meetings of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors of the Institute, which are scheduled for the spring of next year.

Yours sincerely,

Executive Secretary.

My dear Mr. Rush:

On May 16, 1930, we received your application for membership in The American Institute of Architects, which was complete except for the submission of the customary, routine exhibits of your work, and the payment of the first year's annual dues in advance in the amount of $25.00.

We made acknowledgment and called attention to those items, but have not heard from you in response.

There will be a meeting of the Institute's Executive Committee about November first, at which time we can secure final approval of pending applications for membership. It would give us great pleasure to be able to submit your name for election at that time.

As we have advised you, the exhibits should consist of photographs and working drawings of two buildings executed by you. They need not be specially prepared, but may be taken from your office files and will be carefully returned later.

At its April meetings the Board of Directors authorized the Treasurer to accept an applicant's note for the annual dues for the first year. If this provision would be a convenience to you, we would be glad to have you take advantage of it.

We hope to hear from you before the Executive Committee meeting.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Kemper:

In answer to your letter of Sept. 28, I want to thank you for your kind offer of taking my note for the first year's annual dues, in accordance with the Board of Directors decision in April.

I am sending you, under separate cover, the drawings of three of my buildings and hope they will find approval. I am also sending some photographs which I happen to have on hand. In order to economize, I have not gone to the expense of having blueprints made, but am sending the tracings to you. Kindly excuse this with the hard times.

I hope my drawings and this letter will reach you in time for the Executive Committee meeting on Nov. 1st and beg to remain

As yet we have not acknowledged your letter of September the twenty eighth concerning application of Mr. Henri Rush. I Have not attempted to reach Mr. Rush and I question the advisability of doing so for I am quite sure the application of Mr. Rush will not be cleared. This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter of October 13th, with regard to the application for membership filed by Mr. Henri Rush.

Your letter is the first intimation we have received that Mr. Rush would not be a valuable addition to the membership of the Institute and the St. Louis Chapter, and, of course, under the circumstances we would not expect you or President Klein to press him to complete his application.

No further action will be taken by The Octagon staff, to persuade him to complete the application, either. However, should he do so, voluntarily, we would have no other course than to proceed with the handling of the application and to submit it to the membership for privileged communications.

In any event, you will be fully advised of any developments.

Everything is now in good form for the submission of the

Dear Mr. Hoener:

You will recall the previous correspondence with regard to the application of Mr. Henri Rush, of St. Louis. He was endorsed by William Wadeneyer, Albert B. Nelson, and H. G. Clymer.

It now appears that his election has been completed in every respect - except the release of the St. Louis Chapter.

There were no privileged communications against him, and his exhibits were found satisfactory by the Board of Examiners.

He was passed by the Executive Committee at its recent meeting.

But we do not think any notice of election should be sent to him until we have had some final word from you. In this connection see your letter to the undersigned dated October 13th.

November 30, 1939

Dear Mr. Farrar:

In reply to your letter of November 22 concerning the status of Mr. Henri Rush of the St. Louis Chapter:

According to Institute records, Mr. Rush suspended his membership on December 31, 1938, at which time he owed dues in the amount of $20.00. Mr. Rush now owes dues for 1939 in the amount of $20.00, making a total of $40.00, and his membership will be terminated on December 31, 1939 unless payment in full is received before that time.

According to Institute By-Laws, Chapter I, Article 2, Section 6, a corporate member may be exempted from the payment of annual dues and become a Member Emeritus if he has been in good standing in The Institute for not less than 15 successive years immediately preceding the date of his application for retirement and either has attained the age of seventy years or is incapacitated and unable to engage in any vocation.

Mr. Rush cannot qualify for retirement under the 15-year good standing stipulation as he was elected to membership in 1932. The Board has the power to lessen the requirement of good standing (15 years) but no other requirement.

If Mr. Rush is incapacitated or more than seventy years of age, he should restore his membership to good standing before December 31, 1939, and then make application for election to the status of Member Emeritus, petitioning The Board to waive the 15-year requirement.

We sincerely hope that you or Mr. Spearl will be successful in persuading Mr. Rush to restore his membership to good standing before the end of the year.

Dear Mr. Fugard:-

Mr. Rush has just been in the office and brought with him the letter which you were good enough to write him in connection with his retaining his Institute Membership. He feels your kindness so strongly that he is more than straining his situation in handing me a check which will settle his dues to the Institute in full. He is doing this in the hope and expectation that in spite of the fact that he has not been an Institute member for the necessary number of years and that he is not yet 70 years of age, he can qualify for a Member Emeritus owing to the fact that he is incapacitated due to age and growing infirmities.

I told him, of course, that although the local Chapter and its officers would support his application to the limit, I could not myself guarantee that the payment of the check would be followed by his being declared a Member Emeritus, and in view of the importance to him at the present time of the money, I am taking the liberty of holding the check at his request until I hear from you as to what his chances might be. Mr. Rush tells me that should conditions with him improve, and should he become able to earn money again, he would be very glad to continue his dues as an active member.

Thanking you,

Yours very truly,

Pressure of post-Convention work has delayed a response to yours of June 4.

The Board at its annual meeting prior to the Convention found that you were not eligible for election as a Member Emeritus as you have not had fifteen years of good standing as required in the By-laws and as you have not yet reached the age of seventy.

However, it took action with respect to the remission of your Institute dues, subject to similar action by the St. Louis Chapter. We have written to the Chapter and you can depend upon us to let you hear further in the matter in due course.
