Dear Mr. Kemper:

The enclosed application for Institute membership, together with check for $20.00 from Charles Henri Rush is I hope in good order, and are being sent to you for your consideration. Kindly advise us when membership takes effect.

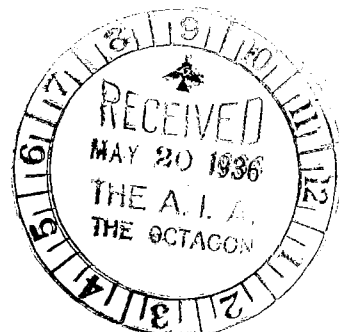

I wish to congratulate you on the part you had taken in making a very successful convention. Had it not been for Mr. Voorhees' unfortunate accident I should say the week might have been put down as just about 100%. I was very sorry to have missed you when we stopped by the Octagon on Tuesday. We enjoyed very much seeing the fine old building and talking with one of your assistants.

I shall look forward to seeing you at the next convention. With best wishes, I remain

Dear Mr. Farrar:

Thank you for your kind letter of May 18th, and for the application of Mr. Charles Henry Rush for Institute Membership, together with his check for $20.00 for the initiation fee and on account of the first year's dues in advance.

This application has been received since the convention when the By-laws of The Institute were revised, and therefore election procedure will be in accord with those By-laws. We had hoped before this to have definite information for the handling of applications for membership under the new regulations, but this is not ready as yet.

We shall have to advise Mr. Rush and you of any further requirements to complete his application.

We are glad that you enjoyed the convention and your visit to The Octagon.

With best regards,

Mr. Chas. T. Ingham, Secretary
American Institute of Architects
The Octagon, 1741 New York Ave.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I realize that my long delay in complying with your request for further information on my application for membership in the Institute is an awkward gesture, to say the least. May I offer a word of explanation.

As you observed from my application I am retained by the Shell Petroleum Corporation in the capacity of architect. I am responsible for the designing and executing of working drawings for service stations for our entire territory which reaches from the Gulf, to the Canadian Border and from Ohio to Iowa. Needless to say we turn out a vast quantity of work during the course of a year. I have a draughting room employing nine men constantly busy, and from all indications I will have to augment this force to accommodate our spring building program. Now, the explanation! At the beginning of November we started on our building program for next year which involved the expenditure of several million dollars. Since this program was approved I have been busy day and night developing new schemes and formulating my work for the next year. This lengthy discussion will indicate to you, I hope, that my delay in answering your letter was not prompted by a feeling of procrastination.

I am sending you, under separate cover, blueprints and photographs of some of my work in service stations and some other jobs done in partnership with my father under the firm name of Henri Rush and Company. I have labeled these various units Exhibit "A", "B", "C", etc., and will briefly describe them in the following:

SERVICE STATIONS

Exhibit "A". Delmar and Hanley, University City, Mo.

This service station comprising an office unit and a separate lubrication building was designed to conform with some of the latest stations built in California by the Shell Oil Company (This company operates along the West Coast). The basic design was modified to conform to our different climatic and marketing conditions. The exterior of stucco and cast stone was painted with cream colored cement paint so that these buildings have a monolithic appearance that is quite unusual. This design was not favorably received because the cost of these units was too great for the revenue derived from most locations.

Exhibit "B". Oneida and East River, Davenport, Iowa.

This building was designed for locations where cheaper buildings were required. You will observe that the drawings indicate a cast stone and stucco building but the photographs indicate a brick building. This change was made in Davenport without preparation of drawings for this revised treatment so I do not have drawings available for a brick building. Neither do I have photographs of a building of this type executed as shown on the drawings. You will observe, however, that the basic design is maintained and brick was used only because of economy.

Exhibit "C". 38th and College, Indianapolis, Ind.

This is one of our more pretentious stations built in a profitable neighborhood. We have built a number of Terra Cotta stations where the revenue or advertising justified their installation and these stations have been very favorably received by the public. It must be remembered, however, that stations of this character comprise only about 15% of our buildings, the majority being smaller and more modest in character for economic reasons.

Exhibit "D". Main and Eagle, Houston, Texas.

This design executed in cast stone and stucco is a favorite in our southern territory. You will observe that my perspective drawing for this type station is a bit crude but I bring to your attention the fact that I cannot find time to go into more elaborate delineation in presenting designs to the Management for approval. Moreover I do not attempt to sell the design but merely present a rough indication of how the station will look.

STUDIO ALTERATION

Exhibit "E".

This job was rather an interesting one. The problem was the alteration of an old stable in back of an old-time mansion into living quarters. The front building was used for an undertaking establishment, and Mr. Craig and his wife were living in the upper floor of this building. The atmosphere, although restful, was not particularly cheerful so they decided to remodel the upper part of the stable.

The lower part of the stable is used as a garage for two hearse and also houses a hot air heating plant. The entire second floor was made into living quarters. I am sending "before" and "after" pictures to show you how this problem was handled. The remodeling resulted in a very cheerful little apartment.

HOSPITAL BUILDING

Exhibit "F".

This building was executed by my father and me in 1935. The rather poor snapshots show the rear building complete and in use with the front residence still in tact and connected to the rear building. I have no photographs of the interior or good photographs of the exterior to date, but if you desire interior views I shall have some made.

The front building which will replace the present residence will be built when financing for this project is completed. I am sending you the drawings of this front building so that you may see the relationship between the wing now built and the future hospital building.

I have attempted to comply with your request for examples of work but should these exhibits be insufficient I will gladly send you other examples. I am quite anxious to be admitted to membership in this organization because of its prestige and the excellent work the Institute has done in advancing the architectural profession.

I am also enclosing a check for five dollars to cover my initiation fee. If there are any other details that might delay my admittance to the Institute I would be glad to complete them in an expeditious manner upon notification from you.

Very truly yours,

P.S. - If possible I would like to have the photographs returned

Dear Sir:

On September fourth I am leaving the United States to establish a permanent residence in the Union of South Africa. I am spending some time in London before leaving for Cape Town and would like to meet with some British architects during my stay there.

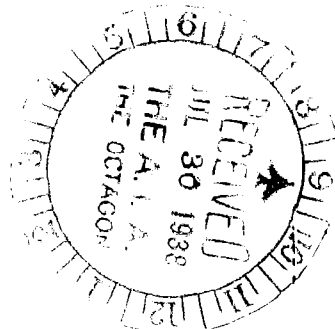

Would you kindly send me a general letter of introduction indicating my membership in the American Institute of Architects and any further greetings or salutations that might facilitate my entrance into the British Society.

Incidentally, if you feel that it might be of interest to the Institute members, I would be glad to send you my impressions of South Africa for possible publication in the Octagon. I would also like to have you consider me always as your South African correspondent on whom you may call upon for news or information.

I am enclosing the Institute Record card which you sent to me for corrections or additions. I believe that this letterhead will give you the necessary information that you require for your records. With my proposed change of address, however, this record will no longer be correct although the firm will remain in operation under the continued leadership of my father who is also an Institute member.

I also would like to receive the Octagon and any other communications that might be issued from time to time to Institute Members.

Should you be interested in receiving an occasional brief article on method and procedure in Architecture and Construction in the Union of South Africa I would be glad to oblige. For my part, I have found much to be marveled at in this energetic country. It is primitive in some respects and in others much more advanced than the average American city. One thing is certain—there is a tremendous amount of new building in the Union, particularly in Johannesburg.

I have established no definite residence as yet but have procured a post office box which I shall use during the coming year as my mailing address which is —

[Handwritten notes and signatures]

Dear Mr. Rush: Attention: Mrs. M. L. Evans

This will acknowledge with thanks check for $13.00 in payment of balance of 1939 Institute dues and Special dues in accordance with statement addressed to Mr. Charles Henri Rush.

However, as we notice that the check is drawn by Mrs. M. L. Evans for "Mrs. Henri Rush", and as we have a letter advising that Mr. Charles Henri Rush is in South Africa, we wish to ascertain whether this payment is intended for Mr. Charles Henri Rush or Mr. Henri Rush, who owes dues in arrears for 1938 amounting to $20.00 and whose membership is due to suspension on account of non-payment of these dues.

We would appreciate your early advice in this regard.

The Suspension Notice to Mr. Henri Rush will be withheld until February 1 and we trust that we may hear from you before that date.

Sincerely yours,

EIA

Dear Mr. Rush:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 6 and your check in the amount of $20.00 in payment for your 1942 dues.

Your membership card has gone forward to your Washington address under separate cover.

According to Institute records this is the first request we have had to change your address and it has been so noted. Herewith are copies of THE OCTAGON published so far this year, which we trust will be of interest, particularly the May number which gives complete information concerning the seventy-fourth annual meeting.

We sincerely hope that you are planning to attend the meeting and that we will have the opportunity of welcoming you at the Statler in Detroit on June 23.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing my check for twenty-five dollars ($25.00), to cover my annual dues and special dues for the year 1943.

Inasmuch as moves from one bureau to another in the government service are rather frequent, I suggest that you change my Washington address from the War Production Board to my post office box which is P. O. Box 565, Benjamin Franklin Station. My home address in St. Louis remains the same.

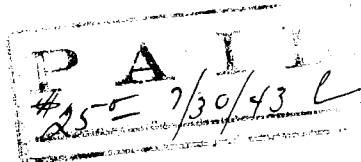

For your information, I have left the War Production Board and am now with the Smaller War Plants Corporation in the capacity of Smaller War Plants Representative in the Office of Price Administration, the Office of Civilian Requirements and the War Manpower Commission. If, at any time, my connections with these War Agencies can be of assistance to the Institute, I hope you will feel free to call upon me.

NOTICE OF SUSPENSION OF MEMBERSHIP

March 1, 1949

To: Mr. Charles Henri Rush
4049 West Pine Blvd.
St. Louis, Missouri

It is with much regret that we send to you, and to your chapter secretary, this notice of the suspension of your corporate membership in The Institute, and in the chapter of The Institute to which you are assigned—because of non-payment of Institute dues.

This suspension is effective as of December 31, 1948. The sending of this notice has been delayed with the earnest wish that you might take some action in the matter.

The purpose of The Institute in permitting a membership to be suspended at the end of the year for default of dues rather than terminated forthwith is to enable the member in default to restore his membership within the period of suspension, without applying therefor and without paying a readmission fee. The period of grace terminates on December 31 of the year next following the date of suspension: in your case, on December 31 of the current year.

At any time during the period of suspension you may restore your membership to good standing by paying to The Institute your defaulted dues.

We sincerely hope that circumstances will make it convenient for you to meet your present obligation to The Institute before December 31, 1949.

The Institute values and needs your active support. The other Officers join with me in the hope that your membership may soon be restored to good standing.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Copy of this notice as "Notice" to the following:

~~Mr. Charles W. Lorenz~~....., Secretary
~~St. Louis~~.....Chapter, A.I.A.

This copy of notice to the corporate member named herein is official notice of the suspension of his membership in The Institute and in the chapter to which he is assigned. Please note on your records accordingly.

Until you receive notification of the restoration of membership or of its termination, the member named should be carried on your rolls as a suspended Institute member. You will be advised if and when his membership is restored to good standing.

Dear Mr. Lorentz:

I regret not having answered your personal letter of October 13th before this time but press of business, coupled with the passive intention of dropping my membership in the Institute, have made me dilatory in taking care of this matter.

After considering the matter further, I believe I will continue with my Institute membership and am herewith enclosing my check for $50.00 which I believe is the amount I am in arrears. Will you be good enough to notify the National and the Local Chapter of my intentions and indicate when I am a member in good standing again.

May I comment on the fact that your personal interest in this matter has been a deciding factor in my decision to continue with the Institute. I wish we had more men of your calibre in the organization. The next time you are in St. Louis it would please me very much to have the opportunity of meeting you.

Dear Mr. Schmidt:

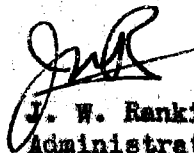

Thank you very much for your letter of November 21, enclosing a check of Mr. C. Henri Rush in the amount of $50.00 as payment of his Institute dues.

Evidently, he wrote you and this office at the same time, and enclosed a check with each letter, as we received his payment of $50.00 on November 22.

It was very interesting to see his comment that your personal interest was what made him decide to continue in The Institute. We find that these letters from the Regional Directors to the members in their region are always more productive than anything sent from Headquarters here, which is a very natural condition.

NOTICE OF IMPENDING SUSPENSION OF CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Mr. Charles Henri Bush
2500 Quo Street, S. W.
Washington 7, D. C.

Dear Mr. Bush:

As you are aware, every corporate member of The Institute must be assigned to a local chapter and pay dues and assessments levied by that chapter.

When local dues and assessments remain unpaid, the chapter may request The Institute to suspend or terminate the membership.

It is a long-established policy of The Board of Directors of The Institute to support the chapter in this procedure, but not without making every effort to bring about the restoration of the good standing of the corporate member concerned.

The Chapter to which you are assigned has requested that your corporate membership be suspended for non-payment of chapter dues.

The purpose of this letter is to suggest that you make payment of outstanding dues, thus preserving your corporate membership in good standing.

Your response to the above will be appreciated prior to March 13, 1963, for we must proceed to act on the chapter's recommendation to suspend your membership if payment for past chapter dues is not received by that date.

Dawson, Evans, Rush Join Octagon Staff

Executive Director William H. Scheick AIA has announced the appointment of three men to the Octagon staff:

C. Henri Rush AIA of Washington, D. C., succeeds Kenneth C. Landry AIA as head of the Department of Institute Relations. Landry was appointed director of the Division of Public Services last April. Rush, a native of St. Louis, brings to the position a wide and varied background in government and private practice, including five years as architect-engineer advisor for U. S. military construction in Formosa; three years as an administrator in the Agencies Coordination Division of the Smaller War Plants Corp., and two years as chief priority specialist for the War Production Board.

John F. Dawson AIA of Ann Arbor, Mich., succeeds M. Elliott Carroll AIA as head of the Department of State, Chapter and Student Affairs. Carroll was appointed director of the Division of Professional Services earlier this year. Dawson has been a faculty member in the Department of Architecture at the University of Michigan since 1956.

Ben H. Evans AIA of College Station, Tex., becomes head of the newly created Department of Research. Since 1952 he has served as coordinator of architectural research at Texas A & M College. A native Texan, Evans is immediate past president of the Brazos Chapter, AIA.

Eric Pawley AIA resigned recently as the Institute's research secretary to accept a position as professor of architecture at the University of Southern California. He will teach and also direct USC's research in architecture.

'Report' Returns for Urgent Matters

The REPORT, AIA's newsletter of government and legislative affairs which was discontinued last March, returned this month with a new mission. Beginning with issue #13, mailed to the membership July 10, the REPORT was reinstated as a medium for communicating government and legislative news of particular urgency to the membership.

Henceforth, whenever urgent developments occur which the membership should be immediately made aware of, a REPORT will be issued. Often, as with #13, it will request specific action from the membership. Its red masthead will signal its urgency.

The REPORT, in its old format, was merged with the MEMO last April, and the MEMO became a fortnightly publication. This allowed the Institute to disseminate all news affecting the profession while it was still timely and fresh. Future issues of the REPORT will not affect the MEMO's regular schedule, and the MEMO will continue to carry government and legislative news.

Mies Awarded Medal of Freedom

The highest civilian honor which a U. S. President can bestow in peacetime is the Presidential Medal of Freedom. On July 4 President Kennedy announced the award of Freedom Medals to 31 citizens, one of them to Architect Ludwig Mies van der Rohe FAIA. The medal will be presented in ceremonies at the White House in September.

The Medals are awarded to persons who have made meritorious contributions to (1) the security or national interests of the U. S., (2) world peace, or (3) cultural or other significant public or private endeavors. Mies received AIA's highest honor, the Gold Medal, in 1960.
