A member, by virtue of his membership in The Institute, becomes a member of the chapter of The Institute within the territory of which he resides or has his place of business, as he elects, but he pays an admission fee to The Institute only. The admission fee to membership in The Institute normally is twenty-five dollars. (For 1936 this fee was reduced to five dollars.)

A member pays annual dues both to The Institute and to the chapter. The annual dues to The Institute normally are twenty-five dollars (for 1936 Institute dues were reduced to twenty dollars) and those to the chapter are fixed in its by-laws.

Normally the period between the time of filing an application and the time it is acted on by The Board of The Institute is four months. The period will be longer if the application must be returned to the applicant for corrections or if additional exhibits of the applicant's work are required by The Board of Examiners.

If an application is denied, the amount prepaid by the applicant for annual dues and for admission fee, less five dollars for examination fee, will be returned to him.

Gentlemen:

I enclose herewith application for membership into the American Institute of Architects, along with photographs of work done by me during the past several years, a check in payment of the initiation fee and annual dues, and receipt from Mr. Roy Marvin, Secretary and Treasurer of the North Carolina Chapter of the American Institute of Architects for duplicate application filed with the North Carolina Chapter. This material is being sent as instructed in the application by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Under the item entitled "Information for Applicants" on Page 2 of the application blank, I notice that the annual dues are twenty dollars ($20.00) and the initiation fee five dollars ($5.00), and am therefore following this section, along with a letter received under date of March 14, 1938, from Mr. Marvin of the North Carolina Chapter, in which he states that a check for twenty-five dollars ($25.00) should accompany the application, as indication of the amount due. Should this amount not be correct, kindly inform me by return mail, and any additional required will be forwarded immediately.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of March 24 relative to my application for membership into the American Institute of Architects, and saying that check in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) was not attached. I find a complete stub in my books and other indications that this check was written, and evidently in the preparation of the package of materials included in the application it was omitted. However, I am enclosing herewith duplicate check for twenty-five dollars ($25.00), same to be applied to my application for membership. I am sending this special delivery, and would appreciate your influence in expediting the progress of my application, as suggested in your letter of March 24.

Your application is now complete and you will be notified promptly of the result of The Board's action on your application.

It will not be possible to secure final action, however, before the convention of The Institute to be held in New Orleans, La., April 19 to 22, inclusive.

As of interest a copy of the March number of The Octagon is enclosed, containing the tentative program for the convention. If it is possible for you to attend, the delay in action on your application need not interfere, as all architects and their friends are cordially invited.
