The President
or The Secretary
American Inst. of Architects.

Dear Mr President

I am leaving the Harvard architectural School, and expect to resume practice in Paris, France. Family reasons have compelled me to return in Europe. I beg therefore to tender my resignation from the American Institute. It is with deep regret that I abandon my association with it. For many years I have enjoyed this great body which serves the profession and its interests with care, tact, and ability; my departure means necessarily my withdrawing from all my activities here; if I feel sorry for this move it is on account of all my friendly relations with american architects; relations will cease but friendliness will continue.

Yours very truly

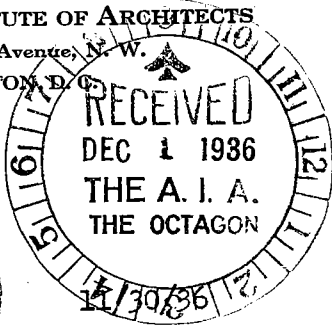

J. Haffner.

Dear Mr. Voorhees:

There were two items I did not get to take up with you:

- (1) Memo on Distribution of Short Form Contract - same as enclosed.
- (2) Your note suggesting that Mr. Jean J. Haffner, A.I.A., be considered for possible election to "Honorary or Honorary Corresponding Membership". A copy of his letter of November 27 is enclosed, and he may be in the same category as Mr. Francis Lorne, A.I.A., who was recommended for Honorary Corresponding Membership by Mr. Levi.

Mr. Haffner's dues are paid to December 31, 1936.

Should we not accept his resignation with regret and let the other question go over for the time being?

Sincerely yours,

MR. KEMPER:

Answering yours of the 17th with reference to Jean J. Haffner, I agree to your suggestion that we should accept his resignation with regret. It would seem that he should be proposed for Honorary Corresponding Membership.
Who should do this? Possibly some of the members of the Boston Chapter.
