Dear Sir:

I would like to recommend Mr. Alonzo J. Harriman of Auburn, Maine, be nominated a Fellow of the Institute because of his outstanding contributions in the field of design and for his service to the Institute.

My first encounter with Mr. Harriman's work came as a student at the School of Architecture, Syracuse University, in doing a research paper on school design, construction and costs. I was later employed in his office for a four year period where I gained invaluable experience. His work in Maine has been a stimulating example to many architects.

Thank you for your consideration of this recommendation.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

I am writing to further the nomination of Alonzo Harriman of the Maine Chapter for Fellow of the American Institute of Architects.

You will know that Alonzo Harriman has been an excellent Director for the New England Region. His work on the Committees on Schools is well known and has been of value to the whole profession. He has been a Member of the Maine Registration Board for years and has been a tower of strength in the attempts of the Board to raise its standards.

I believe he merits elevation to Fellowship on the grounds of Service to the Institute, to the Profession, and for Design.

Gentlemen:

A fellow Architect in the Maine Chapter of the Institute has advised me that the Chapter is nominating Mr. Alonzo Harriman for Fellowship and asked me to write to you regarding his candidacy.

I am happy to do this and indeed I feel privileged to have been asked to support Mr. Harriman's nomination. I was Secretary to the New England Regional Council of the Institute when Alonzo Harriman was elected to succeed Austin Mather as the Director. It was my privilege to work with Mr. Harriman and although I had known him for many years prior to this association, I nevertheless became aware as never before of his deep interest and great dedication to the Institute.

I am sure that all those who become Regional Directors realize the personal contribution that they must make and do so most willingly. However, Mr. Harriman's approach to this position cut deeper and he has devoted a great deal of personal time and effort in the broader problems of the Institute itself.

Mr. Harriman's contribution to the profession through his architectural practice is noteworthy; his studies in the field of school costs and participation in the National Institute Committee on School Buildings are particularly well known to the profession at large.

I have no hesitation in recommending to you his elevation to Fellowship in the Institute because I believe that in every respect he personifies the type of Architect one expects to be a "Fellow".

Sincerely,

Prentice Bradley

Re: Nomination - Alonzo J. Harriman

Gentlemen:

The Maine Chapter of the American Institute of Architects has nominated Mr. Alonzo J. Harriman for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute on the basis of "Design" and "Service to the Institute" and I am more than pleased to write this letter on behalf of this candidate.

I have known Mr. Harriman for about six years and consider him to be one of the outstanding architects in the New England area. I have long admired his school designs, knowing how difficult it is to convince school Boards in northern New England that imagination is a necessary ingredient in economical and functional school plans.

During the past three years while Mr. Harriman has been serving as Director of the New England Region of the A.I.A., I have had particularly close contact with him and believe that he has done an outstanding job both for the Board of the Institute and each of the Chapters of his region. He has set a high standard which should be an inspiration to his successors and all who will serve on the Regional Council.

In addition to these activities, Mr. Harriman has served notably on the National School Committee of the Institute, on the Architectural Registration Board for the State of Maine, has been active in allied school and engineering societies, has lectured extensively on the matter of school planning and written many noteworthy articles.

In spite of his extensive practice and many allied activities, Mr. Harriman always has time to discuss specific problems with individuals or groups who

Gentlemen:

It is with great pleasure that I write a letter on behalf of my former classmate at the Harvard Architectural School, Alonzo J. Harriman who, I understand, has been nominated by his Chapter for consideration by the Jury of Fellows.

A capable and mature student while at school, he has become the outstanding architectural figure in northern New England during the intervening years. I have not had the opportunity to see his executed work, but recall having noted, with pleasure, pictures of them from time to time at exhibitions I have seen, particularly of public schools. His contributions in the field is particularly noteworthy and he has written many articles for the professional magazines on various phases of schoolhouse construction as well as having appeared on the public platform.

His work is good, it is thorough, and is well thought out from engineering point of view, He, himself, is also public spirited, and in every way is contributing greatly to the advancement of the profession, not only in his own area, but over the country as well.

In every way I think Mr. Harriman would make not only a deserving but a valuable addition to the Fellowship of the American Institute of Architects.

I am informed that the Main Chapter of the American Institute of Architects proposes Alonzo J. Harriman, AIA for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute, based on Design and Service to the Institute.

I have known Mr. Harriman for about 10 years. During those 10 years he has devoted a great deal of time to his professional organization, The American Institute of Architects.

During my term as President of the A. I. A., Mr. Harriman served two years as the New England Regional Director. He was a very conscientious director and served on several sub-committees of the Board. His advice and counsel were extremely valuable during the work involved in the recommendations for the Institute's new structure.

Mr. Harriman is a well rounded and practical architect and he was always willing and able to accept any assignment for special work during my administration.

Mr. Harriman is a very talented designer and his work relative to school buildings has been outstanding and has gained him recognition as a leader in that field for many years.

Therefore, I am pleased to second the nomination of Alonzo J. Harriman, AIA for advancement to Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects based on Design and Service to the Institute.

Mr. Harriman's service to the Institute, the profession and the public are too well known to the Jury to need any elaboration on my part. He has long been New England's outstanding architect on school construction and his awards and publications are numerous.

Dear Sirs:

I have known Alonzo Harriman intimately through close professional and personal relations during the past twelve or fifteen years. At all times I have been greatly impressed by his originality and initiative in connection with design problems, which he has related not only to his own work but has made available to the profession as a whole.

Mr. Harriman has taken particular interest to the problems of school design, construction and lighting and has devised solutions to some of these problems which succeeded in giving the desired facilities at much reduced cost. You will note his work for the New York State Department of Education Committee on School Lighting, and also for the American Institute of Architects Committee on Schoolhouse Construction.

I feel very strongly that he is unusually qualified for Fellowship in the Institute on the basis of both design and service to the Institute.

An architect is advanced to Fellowship in recognition of exceptional ability or of exceptional service. The Jury of Fellows always tries to choose wisely and with discrimination, but it is limited in precise knowledge about the nominees.

To complete Nomination, this form must be filled and returned before January 1st. Otherwise, no action will be taken at the forthcoming Jury meeting.

It is the opinion of the Jury of Fellows that a designer, however talented, should not be advanced to Fellowship if he possesses deficiencies of character which reflect discredit upon the profession; and that no architect, regardless of outstanding service, should be advanced if the buildings which he has designed are so notably inferior in architectural design as to reflect discredit upon the profession.

To help the Jury learn such aspects, which are not normally completely supplied through regular nomination procedure, fill in the lines below which in your opinion apply to Alonzo Jesse Harriman, A.I.A. and return this sheet in the addressed envelope provided.

- 1. Has he many friends who speak well of him? yes
