American Institute of Architects,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kemper;

Enclosed please find the application for membership of R. Lincoln Hedlander of Greenwich, Conn., together with his check for $50.00 in payment of initiation fee and dues.

This application has been held for the customary 30-day period and no objections received from the membership.

Unfortunately, the writer was taken sick a few weeks ago, and in the rush of catching up, this application overlooked. It should have been in your hands some time ago.

Will you kindly expedite its course through the regular channels and notify us as soon as Mr. Hedlander's election has been confirmed?

If the enclosed check is in excess of the proper amount, you might remit the balance to the Chapter, and we will credit Mr. Hedlander's chapter dues accordingly.

Thanking you for your attention to this matter, and with personal regards,

Cordially,

Lorenzo Hamilton

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

We are just in receipt of your letter of April 3rd, transmitting the application for Institute membership from R. Lincoln Hedlander, of Greenwich, Conn., together with his check for $50.00 for the initiation fee and first year's dues in advance.

The check is returned, herewith, for your endorsement, as you will note that it is made payable to the Connecticut Chapter, A.I.A.

The initiation fee and annual dues still stand at $25.00 each; however, pending the approval and favorable action of the Convention, we have authority to accept $5.00 for the initiation fee and $15.00 for the year's dues in advance - subject to the approval of the proposed reductions by the Convention.

If you would prefer to send to The Octagon the Chapter's check for $20.00 on the above basis, this would enable us to proceed with the election. If the Convention should not act favorably on the proposed plan, however, the applicant would be billed for the difference if he should be elected.

Whichever course you prefer to follow will be entirely acceptable to us.

The application appears to be complete in other respects, and we shall be glad to put it forward to election at once.

It is noted that the applicant has the unanimous endorsement of the Connecticut Chapter.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Lorenzo Hamilton, Secretary,
Connecticut Chapter, A. I. A.,

Dear Mr. Kemper,

Thank you for your kind letter of April 4th, returning Mr. Hedlander's check for $50.00 made out to the Chapter. I beg your indulgence for the oversight in sending it on without endorsement. I have deposited same to the Chapter's account.

Inasmuch as the chances of the convention taking favorable action on the reduction in dues seems good, I will follow your suggestion and remit Chapter check for $20.00 at this time, which will allow Mr. Hedlander's application to be acted upon without delay.

The Chapter's check in the amount of $20.00 is enclosed and I am notifying Mr. Hedlander of our action.

Cordially yours,

Lorenzo Hamilton
