Distinguished Fellows:

The California Council of Architects takes pleasure in endorsing the nomination of Mr. Earl T. Heitschmidt for advancement to Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects.

Mr. Heitschmidt enjoys a long record of service to the profession. He has contributed both time and effort in Chapter Activities, and he has rendered valuable service to the Institute as a Regional Director for the Sierra-Nevada District.

We respect his professional integrity and believe his advancement to Fellowship will be an honour to the profession.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

The knowledge of the nomination of Mr. Earl T. Heitschmidt for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute comes to me with a great deal of satisfaction.

I have known Mr. Heitschmidt for the past ten years as a valued personal friend and in a professional relation varying from draftsman to associate. This relationship has brought a deep respect for him, both for his professional abilities and for his unswerving service to the public and to the Institute.

No Institute member in our region is more worthy of this honor and I highly commend him to you.

Sincerely,
