6. OTHER REMARKS RE QUALIFICATIONS: One's qualifications to do work of any (Append extra sheet if necessary) kind or size depend upon his mental and intellectual equipment, and in this respect I am prepared to accept and carry out any kind of commission. I feel that a recital at this time of work I have done would be of small value to anybody, because what one has done is largely a matter of opportunity and other factors not related to professional competence. See editorial in Architectural Record, Dec. 1945. It will be sufficient at this time to say that either as principal or in a responsible capacity I have been connected with works costing the whole range from insignificant sums to $125,000,000.
