Dear Sir:

I wish to become the Life Member. We forwarded my One Hundred Dollar ($100.00) Bond to you last week: I am now sending my check for Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) which, as I understand it, completely pays for Life Membership.

If it is necessary for me to endorse over that bond to you, which I should have done possibly, please return it to me at once and I will make proper endorsement and send back. But as far as I am concerned I don't care to bother with it unless necessary.

Very sincerely,

Chas. W. Hopkinson.

Dear Mr. Barfield:

Mr. Charles W. Hopkinson, a Fellow of the A.I.A., and a member of the Cleveland Chapter, has applied for a Life Membership in The American Institute of Architects. His application will be considered and acted upon by the Board of Directors at its meeting in December.

As you know, in order to qualify as a Life Member, the applicant must be in good standing in the Institute. It would be appreciated if you would advise The Octagon, on behalf of the Committee on Practice, if Mr. Hopkinson is in good standing so far as the Committee knows.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Kemper:-

In answer to your letter of October 18th, Mr. Hopkinson has always paid his bills more promptly than anyone else, he is one of the oldest members of the Chapter, his position is always sound, and I have reason to believe that he has never been anything except solvent. All of these things together constitute his panache which, freely translated, means plume of glory.

Very truly yours,

Abram Garfield
