Charles T. Ingham Esq.
Secretary
The American Institute of Architects
Washington D.C.
Dear Mr. Ingham

As for several years past
I have engaged very little in the practice of Architecture and as I see slight prospect for reentering the field I am presenting at this time my resignation as a member of
The American Institute of Architects.

With best wishes for the continued success of the Society

I am Very sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Candler:

The Secretary of The Institute, Mr. Charles T. Ingham, has turned over to us your letter of December 19, tendering your resignation as a member of The Institute.

Before accepting your resignation, it occurs to us that you may be eligible for election as a member emeritus. We note that you have been a member of The Institute in good standing since 1911 - 29 years.

Enclosed you will find, in duplicate, A.I.A. Form S40 - Application for Retirement, which you may complete and return to The Octagon in the event that you are eligible for such retirement which may be determined from the form.

In any event let us hear from you, and be assured of our prompt cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Duncan Candler, A.I.A.,
Canaan, Connecticut.

Dear Mr. Woodbridge:

We are in receipt of a letter of December 19 from Mr. Duncan Candler of Canaan, Connecticut, submitting his resignation as a member of The Institute and the New York Chapter.

On December 30 we replied to Mr. Candler's letter stating that he may be eligible to apply for a Member Emeritus status in The Institute and sent him forms for making such application. A copy of our letter is attached.

As we had not heard from him on February 10 we again wrote Mr. Candler in this respect, but to date have not had a reply. Therefore, we presume he still wishes his resignation of membership to go forward.

However, before we may submit his resignation to The Secretary for acceptance we must have advice from you to the effect that Mr. Candler is in good standing in the chapter. May we have your advice in this matter?

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Executive Secretary

Mr. Frederick J. Woodbridge, Secretary
New York Chapter, A.I.A.
