Dear Miss Gervais:

At the suggestion of Mrs. Leo N. Caron, Executive Secretary, Connecticut Chapter, The American Institute of Architects, I am writing you this letter. I am now a member of the New York Chapter and would like to become a member of the Connecticut Chapter, but still maintain my membership in the New York Chapter. I would like to know if this is possible and, if so, what my financial responsibility would be.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Caproni:

Your letter of June 29th has been received and in response thereto, we take this opportunity to advise that every corporate member of The A.I.A must be assigned to one chapter only.

If you want to transfer your chapter assignment to the Connecticut Chapter, let us know and we will be glad to proceed in accordance with your request.

Should you wish to retain your corporate membership in the New York Chapter, while being affiliated with the Connecticut Chapter, may we suggest that you apply for Associate Membership in the Connecticut Chapter. This type of membership is a chapter membership, has no direct bearing with Institute corporate membership, and is regulated by the Chapter's By-Laws.

We are not aware of Associateship dues payments. However, as long as you remain a corporate member of the New York Chapter you will be obligated to pay full dues thereto, in spite of the fact that you are an Associate Member of the Connecticut Chapter.

We hope this has answered your question and if we can be of further help to you, please feel free to write to us.

Sincerely yours,

(Miss) Florence H. Gervais

C/o Caproni Associates

Dear Mr. Caproni:

Upon my return to the office after vacationing during the month of July, my Secretary has called to my attention correspondence with you, over my signature, concerning the possibility of retaining an affiliation with the New York Chapter should you transfer your chapter assignment to the Connecticut Chapter.

There is a slight error in the information Mrs. Marx furnished to you, in the suggestion that you might become an associate member of the New York Chapter while, at the same time, retaining your corporate membership as an assigned member of the Connecticut Chapter.

The proper procedure is to apply for an "unassigned" membership in the New York Chapter, after transferring to the Connecticut Chapter. The Institute By-laws prohibit a corporate member of the A.I.A. to hold an associate membership in any of its chapters; the classification of "unassigned" membership was provided for just such situations as yours.

In view of your wish to transfer to the Connecticut Chapter we are proceeding accordingly as per the attached notice, and we are advising the New York Chapter of your wish to retain an unassigned membership therein. I am sure you will hear from that Chapter in this matter in due course.

When the transfer is completed you will receive formal notification.

Sincerely yours,
