My dear Sir:

Permit me to acknowledge your letter of January 1 to the Secretary, transmitting your resignation as a member of the Institute. This is received with regret and I trust that it is not tendered because of any misunderstanding arising from the work of this office.

The Board of Directors always regrets to receive a resignation for which there is no explanation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Crane:

Mr. John Molitor has tendered his resignation without any explanation. Do you know of any circumstances which should come before the Board at its meeting on the 18th in connection with the resignation and which would warrant delayed action or a request for reconsideration.

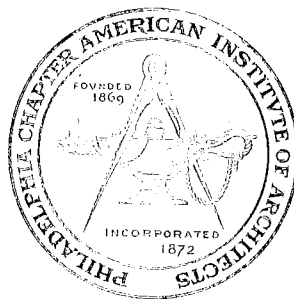

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Edward A. Crane, Secretary
Philadelphia, Chapter, A.I.A.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Philadelphia, January 8, 1917.

Mr. E. C. Kemper,
Executive Secretary, A. I. A.
The Octagon, Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kemper:-

Your letter of January 3rd, 1917, relative to the resignation of Mr. John Molitor, was duly received.

I withheld a reply until I was able to have a talk with Molitor, which I have had today. As a result he has authorized me to write and say that he desires to withdraw his resignation, and I therefore would request that you return same to him if the Board approves, with such a statement as may seem necessary. If he writes himself, that will naturally end the matter. He gave the reason of his proposed resignation as a financial one, but I think he was influenced by a feeling that his work having taken him out of the City so much and having prevented his attendance at the Chapter meetings, that he was out of touch with his fellow architects. I think he was very glad to be asked to withdraw his resignation.

Yours very truly,

Edward A. Crane
Secretary.

Mr. Burt L. Fenner,
Secretary A. I. A.,
The Octagon,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Fenner:-

I had a talk this morning with Mr. E. A. Crane in regard to my resignation from the A.I.A. and hereby withdraw the resignation sent you on January first, 1917. My only reason for taking this action was that I felt that the expense was greater than I cared to carry at the present time.

I remain

Very truly yours,

John Molitor

I merely thought that no one would care whether I continued a member of the Institute or not, and did not want to pay dues indefinitely for nothing.
