Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

The enclosed application for Institute membership was received at this office about a week<sup>ago</sup>. I sent it to Mr. Frost for his signature, made copies for my records, and sent out the confidential inquiry blanks.

Yesterday Mr. Moore telephoned to say that he had learned through his endorsers that the New York Chapter was making inquiries concerning him, and that his application had been sent here by error. He intended that it go direct to Washington, and wishes to join the Connecticut Chapter. I noticed that his residence was in Connecticut, but of course thought that he had an office in New York City, as I believe he has. He thought that since the thing had gone so far his endorsers had better fill out the blanks and return them and requested me to turn over the whole thing to you. He felt that it would give both the Institute and the Connecticut full information without bothering them again.

Yours very truly,

Marion Christie
