Dear Sir:

We have received a letter from the Secretary of the Brooklyn Chapter announcing that your resignation from that chapter had been accepted. Please be kind enough to advise us if you are taking this action because you are going to affiliate with some other chapter. It is assumed that you are aware of the fact that the by-laws prescribe that resignation from the chapter carries with it resignation from the Institute. We would indeed regret to lose you as a member of the Institute, and hope to learn that you are affiliated with some other chapter. Please advise me as to this.

Very truly yours,

Acting Executive Secretary

Gentlemen

Your note of the 8th inst reached me yesterday. A. I have been in New York but little during the past four years and in the future am likely to be there less, therefore resigned from the Brooklyn Chapter

B. I did not realize this also involved resignation from the Institute. I therefore respectfully tender my resignation

C. Enclosed find check for $25.00 dues, trusting I am under no further obligations. I retire with the kindest regards and good feeling to all

My dear Mr. Mott:

Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of June 16 advising of your resignation as a member of the Institute. Receipt is also acknowledged of the check for $25 enclosed in your letter and it would appear from our records that this settles your account with the Institute.

It is with much regret that your resignation is received and it is sincerely hoped that it comes from no misunderstanding towards the Institute. I shall bring it to the attention of the proper committee for consideration, after which, I will advise you further.

Very truly yours,

Acting Executive Secretary.

My dear Sir:

At the meeting of the Executive Committee on Aug. 15 and 16, your resignation from the Brooklyn Chapter and the Institute was carefully considered. In view of the facts stated therein, it was decided to accept your resignation with much regret to be effective at the close of 1914.

It is needless to assure you that should you wish to affiliate in the future with any Institute Chapter, that the matter of reinstatement to Institute membership would be gladly considered.
