LETTER OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

Dear Mr. Murray:

The Secretary is happy to inform you that your application for membership in The Institute was acted on favorably by The Board of Directors and that you were admitted to corporate membership in The Institute and assigned to membership in the Washington, D. C. Chapter, effective April 18, 1947. You will be a member of that Chapter, or of some other chapter if you later transfer thereto, until your membership in The Institute terminates.

Your certificate of membership, duly executed by the Officers of The Institute, will be sent in due course.

The Board of Directors welcomes you to membership in The Institute and The Secretary's office is at your service to the extent of its powers.

The policies and activities of The Institute are developed largely from problems arising within the chapters. By taking an active part in your Chapter affairs, you will contribute to the advancement of the objects of The Institute and will increase the benefits to be derived from Institute membership.

We bespeak your active cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Washington, D. C. Chapter, A.I.A.

OBITUARIES

Retired Architect Loren L. Murray Dies at 78

Loren L. (Lee) Murray, 78, a retired architect who designed schools and churches in the Washington area and in Maryland, died of cardiopulmonary arrest Dec. 23 at Manor Care Nursing Home in Wheaton.

Mr. Murray, a Rockville resident, was born in Carmen, Okla., and moved to Washington when he was a child. He attended what was then the Carnegie Institute of Technology and later returned to this area to work as an architect.

In 1945, Mr. Murray founded the Silver Spring-based firm of Johannes and Murray, and was the firm's principal architect until he retired in the late 1970s.

He had designed schools in Montgomery, Prince George's and Howard counties, in Western Maryland and on the Eastern Shore. Mr. Murray was architect for the undergraduate library at the University of Maryland, the University's main dining hall and several dormitories.

He had also designed Appleton and Wilde Lake high schools in Howard County, Einstein, Kennedy, Paint Branch and Springbrook high schools in Montgomery County, Allegany and Garrett community colleges and Grace Episcopal Church in Silver Spring.

He was a member of the educational committee of the American Institute of Architects and had served on the Maryland Architectural Registration Board.

His wife, Gizella (Ginger) Murray, died in 1986.

Survivors include two sons, Ronald K. Murray of Louisiana and Richard B. Murray of Stuttgart, West Germany; one daughter, Lee Murray Carpenter of Lanham; eight grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.
