Dear Ms. Rambusch:

In response to your letter of May 8, 1978, please be advised that until 1970-71, we made a practice of keeping a contract set of all drawings and, in some cases, sketches of all jobs of any importance from the beginning of the firm; however, we can't verify every job. Many of our drawings have been given to the Burnham Library of The Art Institute of Chicago for microfilming.

In 1951 and 1952, we gave them a large portion of our library and, at the same time, we had many of the important buildings on microfilm.

As to other drawings that we have, the list is much too long to mention in a letter. If you have a particular building in mind, please advise and we will attempt to verify it.

Very truly yours,

JENSEN AND HALSTEAD, LIMITED
