Dear Mr. Kemp:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you of favorable action on your application and welcomes you to corporate membership in The Institute.

You will soon receive some literature about The Institute and a lapel emblem. In approximately one month, you will receive a certificate of membership, either directly from The Institute or through formal presentation by your Chapter.

You are assigned to the Auburn Chapter and Alabama Council of Architects of the AIA, effective April 14, 1977.

I sincerely hope that you will take an active part in your Chapter and its professional development and community improvement activities. Many of the policies and programs which advance our profession are developed in this way. Such activities give you, as a professional, the opportunity to develop leadership capabilities and to help the AIA meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for the architectural profession.

In behalf of our national staff, William L. Slayton, Executive Vice President, joins with me in extending welcome, congratulations and best wishes for success. Please feel free to call on any of us, or the Chapter or Institute officers and staff, at any time the need arises.

Sincerely yours,

John M. McGinty, FAIA

PART A. DIGEST OF ACHIEVEMENTS

Edward V. Kemp, A.I.A. Monroe, Louisiana July 21, 1933 name of nominee chapter date of birth

806 Jessamine Street, Ruston, Louisiana 71270

Nominated By Monroe Chapter American Institute of Architects,
Monroe, Louisiana for Achievements in Education. 1986.

Sponsor: A. D. Mathys, Jr., A.I.A., 209 Reynolds Drive, Ruston,
Louisiana, 71270.

CATEGORY #1. EDUCATION:

Edward Kemp, A.I.A., has over twenty-two years in education adhered to the basic concept that the integration of Education, Internship, and Professional Development is a "Life-Long Learning Attitude."

As an innovative curriculum designer of broad scope, the applicant has provided vehicles to career opportunities in the profession and related disciplines for students of varied educational backgrounds.

As I.D.P. National A.I.A. Cochairman for the past three years, Kemp's dedication to the integration process of the profession, has lead to dynamic growth of I.D.P. from six to twenty-three states mandating guidelines, fourteen additional states accepting same, participating firms have more than doubled and interns have increased from 4000 to over 10,000.

National recognition accepted, Kemp is the single-most effective builder of relationships between students, interns and practitioners in Louisiana.

Edward Kemp, A.I.A. is an Architect of the highest integrity who continues to serve as a resource and mentor to students, graduates and colleagues.

SECTION 4. EDUCATION

1. List the educational positions held by the nominee and period each was held:

Professor of Architecture, Louisiana Tech University, 1978 to present.

Professor & Assistant to the Director, School of Art and Architecture, Louisiana Tech University, 1981-1982.

Professor and Head of the Department of Architecture, Louisiana Tech University, 1978-1981.

Professor and Head of the Department of Architecture, Auburn University, 1974-1978.

Associate Professor and Assistant Director of the School of Architecture and the College of Environmental Design, University of Oklahoma, 1971-1974.

Assistant Professor and Assistant Director of the School of Architecture and the College of Environmental Design, University of Oklahoma, 1969-1971.

Special Instructor and Assistant Director of the School of Architecture, University of Oklahoma, 1967-1969.

Instructor, Division of Architecture, Arlington State College (Now University of Texas-Arlington), 1964-1967.

2. Describe the nominee's achievements in education that are considered notable contributions to the advancement of the profession:

LOUISIANA TECH UNIVERSITY RUSTON, LOUISIANA

Instrumental in starting a statewide program whereby 5th year students holding Associate AIA membership status while concurrently being enrolled in I.D.P. would have state and chapter dues waived, except for meal cost.

Initiated IDP enrollment as one of four requirements to be admitted to fifth year level at Louisiana Tech University.

Was able to double number of faculty to young architectural program to a total of nine and 1/2 positions.

Was able to elevate individual faculty salaries up to a competitive level within the region.

Was able to triple "operating budget" in 1978 which initiated new Professional Services (Guest lecturers from the profession).

Initiated the "Architecture Learning Resource Center" (ALRC) which included books, pertinent architectural periodicals and audio visual equipment. In concept the ALRC was a gathering place, a living room for learning for the architecture students and faculty.

Initiated "Creative Continuum, Back to Basics", an in-depth week long intense program of "Graphic/Basic Design" for national, regional and state practitioner/educator/student participants.

Initiated and implemented a new 4 + 1 professional degree program with newly defined published goals, curriculum structure, course outlines, responsibilities and requirements. For maximum communications for students and faculty a printed document was published.

Primarily responsible for initiation of "Down Town UDAG" grant which outlined positive direction on updating and improvement of Downtown Ruston.

As member of Planning and Zoning Commission have advocated long range planning and maintaining consistency on commission on zoning changes.

Initiated enrollment of city and all commissioners to be members of American Planning Association (APA). This has brought about more progressive thinking and immediate reference to outstanding examples nationwide in lieu of looking to West Monroe (as was done in past) for what they did.

Initiated an Alumni and Student Newsletter. "ARRIS".

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
AUBURN, ALABAMA

Initiated the Architectural Extension services program as a first comprehensive such program know to exist in the region. Its approach was planned to be quite broad, encompassing not only continuing professional development opportunities for the design professionals in the state and region, but also extending to students throughout the University campus and the general public of the region.

Initiated 2 + 2 + 1 program where with a two year architectural design base, students could choose to:

1. Continue in Professional Architecture program five year sequence to choose a single tract:
 - A. Design Concentration
 - B. Architectural Management Concentration
 - C. Technical Concentration

2. Change to a Landscape Architecture five year program.
3. Change to an Interior Architecture four year program.
4. Change to a two year undergraduate strength in planning and a two year graduate degree in Regional and City Planning.

Initiated the establishment of an optional program in Architectural Management for fifth-year students, one of the first such programs at the undergraduate level in the country.

Initiated Landscape Architecture degree program.

Initiated the graduate program in Regional and City Planning in the Architecture Department.

Initiated four-year non-professional design oriented degree Bachelor of Science in Environmental Design.

Initiated semi-annual Alumni "News" to better inform practitioners and alumni what was happening in the program.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA
NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

As executive secretary of the University's President Committee on Architecture and Environmental Design was primarily responsible to initiate new College of Environmental Design. This new college initiated interdisciplinary new programs:

1. 4 + 2 Master of Architecture with four distinct new programs with undergraduate degrees from (a) Environmental Design (b) Engineering (c) Arts and Science (d) General studies.
2. Undergraduate degree in Construction Science.
3. Undergraduate degree in Landscape Architecture.
4. Moved the undergraduate degree in Interior Design to the College of Environmental Design.
5. Moved the graduate degree of Regional and City Planning to the College of Environmental Design.
6. Initiated a research division known as "Institute for Studies in the Human Environment Inc."

Initiated Self and Professional Improvement Seminars which had great impact on students and their education. As direct result the following were achieved.

1. Initiated weekly mini-seminars for practitioners, construction people, etc. to discuss the profession and related disciplines.

2. Initiated bi-weekly film series related to architecture and construction industry.
3. Initiated "Telesis" a monthly student publication.
4. Initiated solar design consideration for residential construction.
5. Initiated design and construction of 70' dia geodesic dome constructed of 2" square aluminum struts.
6. Initiated Operational Gaming Seminar which fostered interdisciplinary and community involvement.

ARLINGTON STATE COLLEGE
ARLINGTON, TEXAS

One of four faculty to research, document, make recommendations and application to elevate the then two year architecture feeder program at Arlington State College (ASC) to a complete professional architecture program to serve the North Texas and the Dallas/Ft. Worth metropolitan areas. This program is now NAAB accredited professional and graduate program at the University of Texas-Arlington.

Began architectural education at ASC in 1951 and also began as night instructor at same institution in 1964. Worked for Milton Barrick, Architect, full time from 8:00 to 6:00 then taught four nights a week from 7:00 to 10:00. "I got hooked on Architectural Education and the special importance and relevance of architectural education."

SERVICE TO EDUCATION

Participated in many ACSA regional and National Conferences. Have given papers to three.

Visitation NAAB team member twice to University of Houston and authored both reports and recommendations to NAAB Board.

Educator advisor to the Alabama State Board of Registration of Architects for four years.

Representative to Auburn University Continuing Education Council which monitored and set policy for all University Continuing Education programs.

Participated as Department Head of "Pilot Programs (5 in U.S.)" to use and evaluate new Educational Development Plan (EDP/SS) for NAAB and presented paper of Auburn. University Architecture Program Evaluation Process at New Orleans NAAB Invitational Conference. From this pilot study new criteria were implemented nationally.

3. List the significant awards, honors and recognition accorded by the Institute and other professional, governmental or civic organizations for the nominee's work in education:

Author - Three Part Proposal for Professional Improvement Restructured and improved professional offerings: Four plus one (4+1) degree programs with new concentrations at fifth year level of design emphasis; management emphasis and construction emphasis; initiated new landscape architecture professional degree; and initiated new graduate program in regional planning, Auburn University 1975.

Coauthor and Editor -Educational Development Plan/Self Study (EDP/SS). A new process of reporting to National Architectural Accrediting Board, Auburn University (one of five national pilot schools) 1975

Author - A Proposal, College of Environmental Design, University of Oklahoma. As executive secretary of University of Oklahoma President's Committee written proceedings were directly responsible in forming the new College of Environmental Design and establishing four interdisciplinary entries to the newly established four plus two (4+2) Master of Architecture programs. Additionally, new programs in construction interior design and landscape architecture were initiated for the college. 1968.

INTERN-ARCHITECT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (IDP)

As committee member and AIA chair of IDP Coordinating Committee since January 1984, it must be said that these are dynamic, energetic and serious working people. No one person initiates or carries a single banner. It is a TEAM effort. Many positive improvements have been accomplished in this time frame:

1. The number of states mandating the training requirements has increased from six (6) to twenty-three (23) with fourteen state registration boards accepting IDP training requirements.
2. It is reported by staff that an increase from 4,000 to more than 10,000 students and interns are satisfying their states' training requirements via IDP.
3. Participating firms increased from 700 to over 1,500 now serve as sponsors and/or advisors to IDP intern-architects.
4. AIA Associate Membership in this same time frame has increased from 6377 to 8636.
5. A new regional coordination system has been established using coordinating committee member (one AIA/one NCARB) to enhance marketing/outreach plan to grassroots and individual states.
6. Initiated IDP liaison network listing identifying program leadership in schools, state and local components, member firms, and registration boards. Educator advisors appointed in 87 of the 92 schools of architecture. This was personally done by Kemp by mail or telephone for ACSA would not accept the responsibility.
7. IDP promotion established at National AIA Convention .
8. IDP Seminar series developed.
9. ACSA representation on Coordinating Committee reestablished.
10. IDP Sponsor/Advisor Guidelines completely revised.
11. "Target Sheets" and case studies developed for students, interns, firms, practitioners (sponsors and advisors), faculty (educator advisors), AIA components registration boards.

12. Revisions made to several AIA Sup-Ed Guides. New Guides developed for the 1987 AIA Handbook of Professional Practice.
13. Model rules developed for registration boards adopting IDP training standard.
14. IDP status map revised to show registration boards' actions re: IDP training standard.
15. NCARB/IDP Council record application form simplified.
16. IDP promotion packages developed.
17. IDP slide show revised.
18. IDP information package revised/simplified.
19. IDP state activity reports developed.
20. AIA developed position paper on IDP.
21. Uniform graphic format developed for all coordinating committee publications and promotional materials.
22. Designed and printed "Pocket Note and Things To Do Today Cards" for National Conventions and national distribution.

Additionally Kemp has made many personal trips nationally, literally from coast to coast to present and explain in-depth IDP application, advantages and procedures. His motto is: "Call and we will come runnin". The theme in his tenure has been "Market IDP - Market Market IDP!! Get it in the trenches! Make IDP a household word in the schools and profession."

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Served as Gulf States Regional Representative to Professional Development Committee for several years before being appointed to three year tenure on Steering Committee.

1. IDP-Sup-Ed-Guides were envisioned and implemented.
2. Original Sup-Ed-Guides were reviewed for format, subject matter and clarity.
3. Initiation of Nationally AIA sponsored Professional Development Seminars.
4. Initiated recommendation for Professional Development seminars to be required of professionals for continued membership in AIA (Failed at Dallas Convention).
5. Initiated and chaired "Futures subcommittee which forecasted near future and distant future of where the Institute should go, be aware of and/or needed new services.

6. Initiated and implemented first (Dallas) and successive Professional Development Programs for National AIA Annual Conventions.
7. Has been proctor and overseer beginning with Dallas Convention to all National AIA Conventions (except Hawaii) since its inception.
8. Has been reviewer nationally to screen and review applications and credentials for accreditation of AIA approved local, state, regional and national seminars.
9. Has chaired "IDP/Sup-Ed-Guide subcommittees" which totally reviewed all existing guides for substance, clarity and relevance. Made recommendations to AIA Board for additional SEG's, complete deletions and strengthening and updating remaining SEG's.

ARCHITECTURAL EXPERIENCE

Although Edward Kemp, A.I.A. has been continually involved with the full-time pursuit of creating an environment for excellence in Education, he recognizes the necessity for maintaining a commitment to the built environment. The following projects illustrate that both commitments have been met.

SECTION 5. EXHIBITS (LITERARY)

SYNOPSIS:

"A PROPOSAL, COLLEGE OF ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN,
UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA"

Oklahoma was becoming an Urban State, with 80 percent of its people living in towns, cities or metropolitan centers.

The problems and opportunities of modern urban life present vastly different human and technical problems than did the relatively simple living patterns of the recent past.

The deterioration of vital phases of our natural and human environments, including inadequacies of conditions for living in our urban and rural communities, have become prime national concerns.

The accelerating changes of technology, coupled with the dilemma of an exploding population in flux, have made obsolete many of the long established definitions and responsibilities of the traditional specialist-professional, often replacing him with a multi-disciplinary team.

It was the desire and obligation of professionals in aspects of Environmental Design and in allied disciplines at the University of Oklahoma to meet squarely the present and future difficulties involved in the search for genuine solution to problems of man's environment in the state and nation with maximum relevance and effectiveness.

We found that existing administrative patterns within the University, based in part on the problems, assumptions and definitions of another age, effectively limit many of our efforts to accomplish these goals.

IT WAS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF REGENTS APPROVE AND ACTIVATE PROMPTLY A NEW FUNCTIONAL DIVISION OF THE UNIVERSITY TO BE IDENTIFIED AS THE COLLEGE OF ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN.

These written proceedings and recommendations were directly responsible in separating the Department of Architecture from the College of Engineering thus allowing the formation of the NEW COLLEGE OF ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN.

This established a new four plus two (4+2) Master of Architecture program with a new four interdisciplinary entry. Additionally, new programs in Construction, Interior Design and Landscape Architecture were initiated.

SECTION 5. EXHIBITS (LITERARY)

SYNOPSIS:

"EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN (EDP) 1979,
AN NAAB ACCREDITATION REPORT"

This new method of documenting the educational development of the first professional architecture degree program at Louisiana Tech University as a "pilot school" addressed new areas of information and specific concerns.

The new format was divided into three basic sections: 1. Introduction, 2. Assessment and 3. Description. Within the Assessment section were very specific items to be addressed, i.e. Introduction, Educational Intentions, Self-evaluation, Program Strengths, Program Weaknesses, Suggestions and Responses. The most significant within this category were The Criteria for Program Evaluation (7-Criteria) and Intentions and Strategies.

The Description section dealt with narrative concerning Students, Faculty Processes, The Educational Process Facilities and Governance.

As the result of this oversized cumbersome document coupled with an on site Visitation a second period of accreditation for the new program at Louisiana Tech University Department of Architecture was received!

The EDP system proved to be too extensive and cumbersome and was discontinued by NAAB.
