A member, by virtue of his membership in The Institute, becomes a member of the chapter of The Institute within the territory of which he resides or has his place of business, as he elects, but he pays an admission fee to The Institute only. The admission fee to membership in The Institute normally is twenty-five dollars. (For 1936 this fee was reduced to five dollars.)

A member pays annual dues both to The Institute and to the chapter. The annual dues to The Institute normally are twenty-five dollars (for 1936 Institute dues were reduced to twenty dollars) and those to the chapter are fixed in its by-laws.

Normally the period between the time of filing an application and the time it is acted on by The Board of The Institute is four months. The period will be longer if the application must be returned to the applicant for corrections or if additional exhibits of the applicant's work are required by The Board of Examiners.

If an application is denied, the amount prepaid by the applicant for annual dues and for admission fee, less five dollars for examination fee, will be returned to him.

An applicant whose application has been denied without prejudice may reapply for admission to membership a year or more after the date of The Secretary's notice to him of his non-admission.

Dear Mr. Ingham,

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 2nd requesting photographs of work of which I am the author.

As you will have noted in my application I have been working with Mr. Lescaze for the past four years as an employee. Mainly my work has been on problems of design.

Under separate cover I am mailing a group of progress photographs of the buildings on which I have been working for the past year and a half, and of which I have been in charge of the design. These are the photographs which I have recently submitted to the Admissions Committee of the New York Chapter, and which I trust, will be what you are looking for. I will appreciate your returning them at your convenience.

NOTICE OF SUSPENSION OF MEMBERSHIP

March 1, 1946

To: Mr. Charles Howson Abbe
Fifth Floor Bulletin Bldg.
Philadelphia 7, Penna.

It is with much regret that we send to you, and to your chapter secretary, this notice of the suspension of your corporate membership in The Institute, and in the chapter of The Institute to which you are assigned—because of non-payment of Institute dues.

This suspension is effective as of December 31, 1945. The sending of this notice has been delayed with the earnest wish that you might take some action in the matter.

We sincerely hope that present conditions which so adversely affect the practice of architecture will definitely change for the better in the early future, thus making it convenient for you to meet your present obligation to The Institute and to restore your good standing before December 31, 1946.

The Institute values and needs your active support. The other Officers join with me in the hope that your membership may soon be restored to good standing.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander C. Robinson III
Secretary.

Dear Miss Marx: There seem to be but three "appropriate"
reasons, any one of which qualify,
a member for the status "Emeritus".

After thirty or thirty-five years of

be nicer to be listed "Emeritus"

that I will have to be counted

Dear Mr. Abbe:

You have been a good-standing member of the Philadelphia Chapter/American Institute of Architects for many years and we would not like to see your forfeit your membership.

With the new changes in the bylaws that were passed at the Convention in Detroit this year, they have lowered the age of an applicant for Emeritus Membership to 60, instead of 65 years of age.

In view of that fact, you would be eligible for the Membership Emeritus and I am enclosing application for same. As an Emeritus member of the Institute, you would retain all of the rights and privileges of active corporate membership, while being relieved from the payment of further dues to the AIA, the Chapter, and State Society. Also, the Institute would approve your application made retroactive to January 1st of this year.

Please mail the completed form to The Institute at 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036.
