Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective on February 27, 1923.

March 12, 1927

Dear Mr. Adams:

At the direction of the Secretary of the Institute, and with regret, I write to advise you that your membership in The American Institute of Architects, and the Kansas City Chapter, has been terminated, effective March 1, 1927, for non-payment of Institute dues.

You are indebted for $75.00, covering the years 1925, 1926, and 1927.

If I might add a word of explanation, it would be to say that the Officers and Directors of the Institute are more than sorry that this action is necessary. They regret to lose your name and influence.

But the Institute is largely dependent upon the dues of its members for carrying on its work. It is not fair to those who pay their dues to carry, indefinitely, those who do not pay. Under the general resolution adopted at the December meeting of the Board, and about which we advised you, we are obliged to drop those owing for two years or more.

It is hoped that the future will bring about improved business conditions for you, and that you will consider renewing your professional society affiliations.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Arthur Frederick Adams,
1200 State Lake Building,
Chicago, Ill.
