Dear Mr. Anderson:

The Secretary is happy to inform you that your application for membership in The Institute was acted on favorably by The Board of Directors and that you were admitted to corporate membership in The Institute and assigned to membership in the Washington, D. C., Chapter, effective February 12, 1946. You will be a member of that Chapter, or of some other chapter if you later transfer thereto, until your membership in The Institute terminates.

Your certificate of membership, duly executed by the Officers of The Institute, will be sent in due course.

The Board of Directors welcomes you to membership in The Institute and The Secretary's office is at your service to the extent of its powers.

The policies and the activities of The Institute are developed largely from problems arising within the chapters. By taking an active part in your Chapter affairs you will contribute to the advancement of the objects of The Institute and will increase the benefits to be derived from Institute membership.

We bespeak your active cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr. Anderson:

It gives me pleasure to inform you that I have authorized your election as a Member Emeritus of The Institute as of January 1, 1968.

The Treasurer's Office of The Institute and your component organization are being directed to adjust the records accordingly.

On behalf of The Officers and Board of Directors, I wish to take this opportunity to express my great appreciation for your support, throughout your many years of membership, of the work and projects undertaken by The Institute and its components for the cause of better architecture.

We hope that your interest in The Institute and Chapter will continue, even though you have now been relieved of all dues payments.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Rex W. Allen, FAIA

Arthur L. Anderson, 87, a Washington area architect whose projects included the Wheaton Plaza shopping center and the clubhouse at Rosecroft

ARTHUR L. ANDERSON

Raceway, died Sunday at Falmouth Hospital in Falmouth, Mass., following a heart attack.

He lived in Gaithersburg and was visiting a stepdaughter at the time of his death.

Mr. Anderson was born in Boston. He learned drafting as a young man and architecture by himself. Before moving to Washington in 1933 he was a baker in Atlanta.

In 1934, Mr. Anderson went to work for an architect in Washington. In 1944, he opened his own firm, Arthur L. Anderson & Associates. He designed numerous commercial and residential properties in the area before his retirement in 1965. His firm then was taken over by William Fahey, a longtime associate.

Mr. Anderson belonged to the American Institute of Architects, the Washington Downtown Host's Lion Club and the Washington Board of Trade.

A member of the Annapolis Yacht Club, he often sailed his boat to Florida for the winter months. For several years he maintained a summer home in Ontario, Canada.

Mr. Anderson's survivors include his wife, Zilpah Huie Anderson of Gaithersburg; two stepchildren, Dr. Dorothy F. Travis of Falmouth, and James Ernest Travis of Arlington, and three stepgrandchildren.
