We note with regret that you are tendering your resignation and beg to advise that we have no record of your resignation other than in your present letter.

Dear Mr. Angell:-

Please pardon the delay in answering your letter of November 23 - caused by my absence while attending the meetings of the Board of Directors held with the Texas and Louisiana Chapters.

We never received your resignation, so far as the record here shows. We find your letter of January 3 in which you state that your resignation was made a week previously. We wrote to you on January 10 stating that the resignation, to become effective, must come through the Executive Committee of the Detroit Chapter.

The whole procedure is shown on the excerpt from the By-laws sent herewith. The Secretary of the Chapter is Mr. Elair Wm. Ditchy, 415 Brainard Street, Detroit, Michigan.

If you still feel that you must sever your affiliations with the Institute, and the Detroit Chapter, a resignation should come forward through the Chapter.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

I have the copy of your letter to Mr. Angell regarding his resignation. We received his letter of resignation, but delayed sending it hoping that he might be influenced to reconsider his decision. Nothing has been accomplished in this direction however, and in the meantime his letter was mislaid.

He has supplied us with another letter of resignation which I am enclosing herewith, and the Treasurer reports that his dues were paid up to date as of Jan. 1, 1927. I presume in view of the facts of the matter, his resignation should be dated as of Jan. 1, 1927.

I am hoping to have at least one more application to forward you before the end of the year.

Sincerely yours,
