BE PREPARED

In view of the Korean crisis which augers a change in our national economy with a consequent effect on the architectural profession, it is thought advisable for Architects to furnish Federal Agencies with up-to-date personal data.

In submitting your data to a Federal Agency, it is recommended that the following points be convered.

1. Name, location and history of firm.
2. Biography of principal members.
3. Biography of key personnel, including Engineering Consultants.
4. Size of Organization and Office facilities.
5. Character of potential practice.
6. Present amount of work in dollar value.
7. Accumulated amounts of work in dollar volume during entire practice.
8. Names of principal clients and projects.
9. Special war activities.
10. Illustrations.

Recommended that you submit data directly to the Federal Agencies and duplicate copy to American Institute of Architects, Washington, D. C.
