January 26th, 1916.

Dear Sir:-

Acting for the Secretary, I take pleasure in advising you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective January 11th, 1916.

You will receive later the Annuary and Proceedings for the current year. The former contains the official documents of the Institute.

In accordance with the action of the recent Convention of the Institute with regard to applicants qualifying in 1916, your initiation fee of $25.00 has been remitted. As you have paid the preliminary fee of $5.00 the only charge on the Institute books is for dues for the current year. For this item we enclose a formal statement.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Institute at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we will be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. George H. Bickley,

GEORGE HOWARD
BICKLEY, A.I.A.,
A.D.G.F. -1938

His quiet reserve will always be remembered with affection.
His discriminating taste gave the greatest personal charm to his creations.

His devotion to his students endeared him to them.

His personality and rectitude commanded respect.

His fellow-members in the Philadelphia Chapter, American Institute of Architects, record their deep sorrow in the loss of a beloved friend.
