PROFESSIONAL TRAINING AND PRACTICE

The following is a record of my professional training and practice:

1. From February 1946 I have been engaged in the profession of Architecture as a practicing architect.
At present I am working on drawings for the Singer Sewing Machine Company's new store. I have just completed drawings for a two-story and basement addition to Sears, Roebuck and Company. The contract was let to Harris Construction Company for $83,000.00. I have the general supervision of this job.
2. From October 1945 to February 1946 I made drawings for a Hammett Dress Shop and a Fred L. Hill Plumbing Shop.
I took the general contract on these jobs at $37,500.00, and am just now completing them. I do not intend to take any more general contracts now that I have my registration to practice architecture.
3. From August 1944 to October 1945 I was employed by Donald R. Warren Company of San Francisco in their architectural department as a senior draftsman and had the following work:
  - a. writing specifications on a large Army Project and making preliminary drawings on a hospital group of forty buildings.
  - b. from November 1944 until May of this year I was acting as Architectural Consultant for the U. S. Navy on the 20 million dollar Naval Supply Depot, Stockton, California, from the Donald R. Warren Field Office there.
  - c. From August until November, 1944, I worked on the Naval Supply Depot drawings in the San Francisco office.
4. From October 1943 until August 1944, I was employed by the U. S. Naval Civil Service, Architect rating of P-3 which was obtained by an Oral Examination at Pearl Harbor, T.H. I worked under J. B. Van Cort, Architect, of Honolulu. The work consisted of preparing, working drawings of buildings and coordinating the electrical, mechanical and structural work on the jobs, and seeing the job to completion. I also designed and made preliminary drawings of proposed buildings or projects.

Some of the buildings I worked on were the 1500 bed Naval Hospital at Aiea (concrete construction), Marine Hospital at Pearl Harbor, (concrete) A & R. Shop and Hangar at Barbers Point (steel), Submarine Base laundry at Pearl Harbor (timber) Radar School at Pearl Harbor (timber), Marine Laundry at Pearl Harbor (timber), Mess Hall and Nose Hangar, Roger Field Honolulu (timber and steel) Underground Hospital for South Pacific Island (concrete) four story administration building at Pearl Harbor (timber), Naval Officers Club at Fort Island (timber) Naval Officers Quarters at Makalapa (timber) Naval Theatre for Aiea hospital group (timber and steel) three story nurses quarters for Aiea hospital group, and many small jobs.

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

14. I list below, in chronological order, the periods during which and the states in which I have practiced architecture as an individual or as a member of a firm or corporation or as a public official or have taught architecture or the arts and sciences allied therewith. (State names of firms or corporations or public office and of schools or colleges).

Dear Mr. Bomberger:

The Secretary is happy to inform you that your application for membership in The Institute was acted on favorably by The Board of Directors and that you were admitted to corporate membership in The Institute and assigned to membership in the Central Valley of California Chapter, effective August 15, 1946. You will be a member of that Chapter, or of some other chapter if you later transfer thereto, until your membership in The Institute terminates.

Your certificate of membership, duly executed by the Officers of The Institute, will be sent in due course.

The Board of Directors welcomes you to membership in The Institute and The Secretary's office is at your service to the extent of its powers.

The policies and the activities of The Institute are developed largely from problems arising within the chapters. By taking an active part in your Chapter affairs, you will contribute to the advancement of the objects of The Institute and will increase the benefits to be derived from Institute membership.

We bespeak your active cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander C. Robinson III
