Dear Margot: Re: Application for Corporate Membership of James Max Bond, Jr.

Please note on the attached copy of record of registration that the supervisor of the licensing board does not answer whether or not Mr. Bond's license is current. In answer to the question (#6, part 3) he simply states May 3, 1963.

We note under #1, that the supervisor states the applicant is licensed in New York State. However, we do not find him listed in the roster of New York State Registered Architects.

Please ask the licensing board to clarify this discrepancy and let us know whether Mr. Bond's license is current.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Manager

Dear Maureen:

Thank you for your note of April 13, 1968. Instead of writing the Board of Architectural Examiners in Albany, I asked Mr. Bond to supply us with a photostatic copy of his current registration. Would you accept this in lieu of Record of Registration that has been evidently been issued wrongly?

Please let me hear from you.

Dear Mr. Bond:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you that it has acted favorably on your application and welcomes you to corporate membership in The Institute.

In the near future, you will receive some literature regarding The Institute, which we hope you will find interesting, and a lapel emblem. In approximately two months you will receive a certificate of membership, either directly from The Institute or through formal presentation by the Chapter.

You are assigned to the New York Chapter and the New York State Association of Architects, Inc. of the AIA, effective May 24, 1968.

I sincerely hope that you will take an active and interested part in your Chapter's activities. The Chapter is the cornerstone of The Institute's strength where the policies which advance our profession are developed. Members who are active in Chapter affairs gain the most from AIA as professional men and provide the leadership which AIA needs to meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for architecture.

I want you to feel free to call on any of The Institute officials or staff members any time the need arises.

Sincerely yours,

Robert L. Durham, FAIA

Dear Mr. Bond:

We are pleased to inform you that your membership in The American Institute of Architects has been restored.

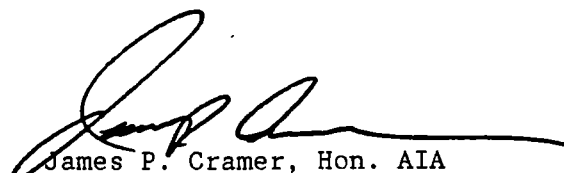

You are assigned to the New York Chapter of the AIA effective this date, and the normal flow of regular AIA mailings will resume within eight weeks.

It is a pleasure to welcome you back to AIA membership. Your renewed interest and support are important to the over 56,000 architectural professionals who now comprise the AIA. We urge you to take an active part in your chapter's activities and the programs offered by the Institute, particularly in the areas of professional development, community action programs, and design issues.

Should you have any questions or if we can be of assistance in the future, please feel free to call upon us.

Sincerely,

INSTRUCTIONS

ELIGIBILITY

Every architect who is a legal resident of and has been granted a license or registration by any state, the District of Columbia, or any territory of the United States may apply for membership via the AIA chapter serving the area in which the architect lives or works.

PRIVILEGES

Every member of the Institute in good standing shall have and may exercise and use all of the rights and privileges of a member of the Institute conferred by law or granted by the provisions of the AIA Bylaws.

TITLE

Members in good standing may print and otherwise use in connection with their practice and work the initials "AIA" as a suffix to their names and the titles "Member of The American Institute of Architects" and "Member of the (assigned chapter or state organization) of The American Institute of Architects."

CHAPTER ASSIGNMENT

All members of the Institute shall be and remain members of the chapters and state organizations to which they are assigned or reassigned, and shall pay the fixed dues of the respective organizations. Information on the dues structure for these organizations can be obtained from the local chapter.

APPLICATION AND DUES

1. Please type or print the information requested to fully complete the application. Be sure to include sponsor information and all required signatures, including your signature and your sponsors'. The chapter president or secretary will sign the form after your application has been reviewed and accepted by the chapter.
2. Attach a check, made payable to The American Institute of Architects, for the correct amount of national dues and appropriate fees, as indicated at right. Complete the section on supplemental dues if applying for readmission and if applicable. A Dues Worksheet is provided below to assist you in figuring your dues payment.
3. Please send your completed and signed application, with the full amount of your membership dues as required, to the secretary of the local chapter. Be sure to include evidence of your current state registration.
4. Upon admission, the member joins the national, local, and state organizations and is obligated for the dues assessed by each. For information on local dues amounts, contact your chapter executive or secretary.

MEMBERSHIP DUES CHART—Enter appropriate dues amount on line a. of Dues Worksheet below.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DUES

Reduced rate for new members $80 + $10 admission fee

Reinstating members $150 + $25 reinstatement fee

(Complete supplemental dues liability information below and enclose additional dues, if owed.)

Proration

For applications received by the AIA between July 1 and Sept. 15, you may remit one-half the annual dues ($40 new member or $75 reinstating.) If you pay full annual dues, one-half will be applied to the next year. Proration does not apply to admission fees or supplemental dues. No proration allowed if reinstating within the year of termination.

15-month plan

Payment accompanying applications received by the AIA between Oct. 1 and Dec. 31 should be for full-year dues. No additional dues will be collected for the following year. Members reinstating within the year of termination are ineligible.

50 percent reduction for newly registered architects

If your chapter participates in this plan, a newly registered architect should remit payment of $50 ($40 dues + $10 admission fee.) Only eligible applications received by the AIA between Jan. 1 and June 15 will be processed on this plan. (Enter appropriate amounts on lines a. and b. of dues worksheet below.)

SUPPLEMENTAL DUES (Former AIA members must complete)

Every member and former member reapplying who is an "owner or manager in an organization using registered architects to perform services for the public" is liable for supplemental dues. To satisfy this requirement, all former members must check the appropriate designation below and include payment for the total amount of dues that applies.

I am not liable.

I am an owner or manager in a firm that provides professional services. The responsibility for supplemental dues is being met by the AIA member whose name and membership number I have listed.
