March 1, 1923.

My dear Mr. Bourke:

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective February 27, 1923.

You have been assigned to the Illinois Chapter as an Institute member in good standing therein, and the Secretary of the Chapter has been so advised.

Enclosed herewith is statement covering dues for the last three quarters of the current year.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Secretary at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we shall be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Robert E. Bourke,

Dear Mr. Bourke:

We are in receipt of your letter of June 3rd, with regard to your resignation as a member of The Institute and the Chicago Chapter.

A careful search has been made and we cannot find your letter of resignation which you forwarded in March 30th. We did receive your check for $7.00 for the first quarter of 1944 dues, and the bill which you returned with it; but there was no letter accompanying these so far as we can find.

The resignation will be put forward, as we must clear through the Chicago Chapter before final acceptance under established procedure.

In due course further word will be sent to you in this matter.

We are sorry indeed that you feel you must resign your membership and hope that at some future date you will again affiliate with your professional society.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary
