Jan. 12th, 1933.

Mr. Edwin Bergstrom, Treasurer,
American Institute of Architects,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

I have been told by the treasurer of our chapter that there is a provision in the bylaws of the Institute by which a member is relieved from the payment of annual dues
after he is seventy years old.

If I have understood this correctly, I should like to avail myself of the privilege, as I was born in June, 1861.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Coit

March Board

January 24, 1933

Dear Mr. Coit:

We have your letter of January 12th (which was received on the 20th) and from the statements contained therein it appears that you are entirely eligible to have your name placed on the retired list of The American Institute of Architects.

There is a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Institute, scheduled to be held on March 15th, at which time we shall be glad to bring your application before the meeting for action.

You will be advised promptly thereafter of the action taken.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Coit:

At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors your application for retirement was considered, and we are now in a position to advise you that the Board, by resolution, placed you on the retired list of the Institute, effective December 31, 1932.

This makes no change in your status as an active member of the Institute, except that it relieves you of the payment of dues.

By direction of the Secretary.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.
