Dear Maureen:

Mr. Cooke's Corporate Membership was terminated as of December 31st, 1967. In order to avoid applying for membership again, I was wondering whether you would accept his check in the amount of $135.00, which I already have in payment of his indebtedness to the Institute and one year's dues in advance for 1969.

I would greatly appreciate if this could be arranged and Mr. Cooke's membership reinstated in the Institute.

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Many thanks.

In order to reinstate Mr. Cooke, we will need his written statement to be readmitted, statement from the chapter that it recommends his readmission, and verification that he is still registered. (Copy of his license card will suffice).

With respect to dues, that depends on when he is admitted again. If his application is sent in time to be acted on in 1968 then we will need $110.00. Please bear in mind in this event that he will be billed for 1969 AIA dues at the proper time like all other members. Because of this, it may be worth his while to wait until the first of the year.

If his application is sent to us to be acted on after January 1, 1969, then we will need $135.00.

Dear Mr. Cooke:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you that it has acted favorably on your application for readmission and welcomes you to corporate membership in The Institute again.

You are re-assigned to the New York Chapter and the New York State Association of Architects, Inc., effective January 15, 1969, and will remain assigned to these component organizations of the AIA until your membership terminates; or unless you wish to have your assignment transferred elsewhere should the opportunity arise.

I sincerely hope that you will take an active and interested part in your Chapter's activities. The Chapter is the cornerstone of The Institute's strength where the policies which advance our profession are developed. Members who are active in Chapter affairs gain the most from AIA as professional men and provide the leadership which AIA needs to meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for architecture.

I want you to feel free to call on any of The Institute officials or staff members any time the need arises.

New York, NY 10029

Dear Mr Cooke:

Our records show we have not received your completed 1985 dues renewal. I regret that we therefore must terminate your membership in the AIA and our component organizations, retroactive to January 1, 1985.

We realize that this matter may be unintentional on your part or that our records may be in error. If our records are wrong, please call the Membership/Component Affairs Department at (202) 626-7424 so we can correct the error.

If our records are correct, i.e., you have not paid, you may reinstate your membership through May 1985 without reapplication and without a readmission fee. Simply forward your completed dues invoice with payment to the Institute at your earliest convenience. After May 31, an additional fee for reinstatement will be required to reactivate your membership.

We hope you will consider rejoining the Institute soon. Until you do, you will not receive AIA periodicals or other benefits, and are not permitted to use the initials "AIA" after your name.

We very much value your participation in our Institute, and hope we may continue to serve you in 1985.

Sincerely,

Philip W. Dinsmore, AIA
Secretary
