To the Secretary of the American Institute of Architects,
The Octagon, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In making application for membership, I feel that I must go further into details.

Pennington at the age of sixteen. Finding the possibilities exhausted after four and one-half years, I went to New York with Marren & Wetmore, and was one of the first of the three draftsmen they employed. The first work was on the New York Yacht Club. Other buildings included the Belmont Hotel, Chelsea Steamship Fier Recreation Fiers, Brooklyn Stables, Lean, Van Cortlandt office building, Henrich Hudson Memorial Bridge of concrete, 750 ft. span (not built), subway stations, numerous city and country houses, and the first drawings for the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

I left Warren & Wetmore to go in business for my-self. The completed work included residences for Henry White-house, Fitz Hugh Whitehouse and Munson Morris, country residences of Payne Whitney and Roger Winthrop. All these under the firm name of d'Hauteville & Cooper, and the country residence of Joseph Larocque at Bernardsville, under my own name.

Was afterwards associated with Edward Herbert Davis of Scranton, Pa., on large improvements consolidating all of

In taking up my residence in Washington, have been associated with Wood, Donn & Deming, on competitive work, Sing Sing Prison being one of the prize designs.

Was afterwards with Elliot Woods, Superintendent, working on the House and Senate Office Building, the Court House in Judiciary Square, refinishing some rooms in the Capitol, and the alteration to the house of Representatives, which was not carried out.

Was afterwards employed by Leon Dessez of this city, and was with him the greater part of eight years, in which time the District Mormal School was worked up, Engine House No. 2 on 12th St. between G and H, the new Municipal Hospital, 1000 beds, fourteen special service buildings and Residence of George Hamilton, Leon Dessez, Country est.of Gen. Buchanan phychopathic hospital. Under General Black and Leon Dessez, worked on the new proposed Soldier's Home Hospital.

In the meantime, I was in business for myself in the Cochran Building, about four years. Designed about twelve buildings of my own, including bakeries, city and country residences, stores, etc.

principally as designer and had complete charge of the work done.

Was employed during the war by Donn and Deming on work at Indian Head, Maryland, and by the Bureau of Standards on housing improvements. This last work was stopped by the Armistice.

Since then I have been employed in the capacity of designer by Philip M. Jullien, samples of some of the work I am submitting as an exhibit.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS THE OCTAGON, WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 6, 1924.

My dear Mr. Cooper:-

Your indebtedness to the Institute for dues is $50.00, including the current year.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors last November a resolution was adopted to the effect that each delinquent who owed for two years or more on January 1, 1924, should be removed from Institute and Chapter membership unless he made a satisfactory payment or some arrangement with the Treasurer, on or before March 1, 1924.

You have received several letters or telegrams form the Treasurer about this matter and according to the records at the Octagon House you have not found it possible to meet the liberal conditions contained in the resolution, thereby saving your membership.

This situation is much regretted, for the Institute Officers and Directors are loath to lose a member for financial reasons, but fairness to those who are paying dues and supporting the work of the Society prevent further delay. This will formally advise you of the discontinuance of your Institute and Chapter membership, effective March 1, 1924.

The Becretary of your Chapter has been so advised through a copy of this letter.

On behalf of the Treasurer and the Secretary, I express the hope that improved business conditions will soon permit you to meet your obligation now standing on the Institute Books, and at the same time to apply for reinstatement.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.
