Gentlemen:

I have just received a letter from Miss Jean Pierson, secretary to Mr. Wm. H. Deacy, New York City, which reads as follows:

"I noted in the January issue of your magazine - Mr. Deacy's name as Architectural Editor with F.A.I.A. after it which stands for a Fellow. This is incorrect as Mr. Deacy has never been awarded Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects. Inasmuch as it might cause an erroneous impression and criticism will you please direct a letter to the American Institute of Architects, Octagon, Washington, D. C., advising that this was an error - and it will not be repeated."

I apologize to you and to Mr. Deacy for the error. It was purely a case of misunderstanding. The initials indicating Fellowship have now been deleted.

Sincerely,
