Washington, D. C.

Dear Ted:

Dick B.S.

At its meeting here on January 15-18 I advised The Board of Directors of your intention to resign and read your letter on that subject. The Board adopted the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, That The Board notes with regret the resignation of Theodore W. Dominick, AIA, from the staff, to return to private practice, and expresses to him its appreciation of his devoted efforts on behalf of the Institute, and its best wishes for his future happiness and success".

As I have expressed to you, you know that I echo these sentiments wholeheartedly, as do all members of the staff.

Have a good vacation and best of luck in practice. Think how simple that will be by comparison!

Cordially yours,

William H. Scheick, AIA

Excerpt from Minutes, Meeting of the Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects, January 1964, Executive Director's Report:

Building Products Register - Resignation of Mr. Dominick:

Mr. Scheick advised The Board that Theodore W. Dominick, AIA, had tendered his resignation as of January 31, 1964. Mr. Dominick had been the first staff man on the Building Products Register work, and has always been in charge of it, except for a period when he was a Division Director and engaged another to take direct charge.

RESOLVED, That The Board notes with regret the resignation of Theodore W. Dominick from the staff, to return to private practice and expresses to him its appreciation of his devoted efforts on behalf of The Institute, and its best wishes for his future happiness and success.
