August 3, 1916.

Dear Sir:

Acting for the Secretary, I take pleasure in advising you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective August 3, 1916.

You will receive later, the Annuary and Proceedings for the current year. The former contains the official documents of the Institute.

In accordance with the action of the last Convention of the Institute with regard to applicants qualifying in 1916, your initiation fee of $25.00 has been remitted. As you have paid the preliminary fee of $5.00, the only charge on the Institute books is for dues for the current half year. For this item we enclose a formal statement.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Institute at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we will be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Appleton P. Clark, Jr.,
816 Fourteenth St.,
Washington, D.C.

Building, 816 14th Street

May 26, 1924.

Mr. E. C. Kemper,
The Octagon,
17th & N. Y. Ave.,
City.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

I have a rather distinct recollection that when I was on the Committee of Admission to the Institute of having passed on the Application of an Architect of New York by the name of Bossom.

Recent inquiry by Mr. De Los Smith seemed to indicate that Bossom is not a member of the Institute.

How did I get my impression?

Yours sincerely,

A. P. Clark, Jr.
