Dear Mr. Clarkson:

Permit me to acknowledge with gratification, and on behalf of the Secretary, your application for membership in The American Institute of Architects, received by reference from the Secretary of the North Texas Chapter.

Your application appears to be complete, except for the following:

- (1) The payment of Annual Dues of $25.00, which, for the new member, are payable in advance. These dues, of course, are applied to the first twelve months following the date of election.
- (2) The submission of exhibits of executed work consisting of working drawings and photographs of two executed buildings. These exhibits may be taken from the office files and need not be specially prepared. They are returned in due course.

There will be a meeting of the Institute Executive Committee in early August, and we trust that you will find it possible to take care of these items in the near future, in order that your application may be acted upon by the Board of Examiners, first, and then by the Executive Committee, in August.

We acknowledge, with thanks, the check covering the Initiation Fee of $25.00, received with your application.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Wiley G. Clarkson,
First National Bank Building,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Gentlemen:                   ATTENTION OF MR. E. C. KEMPER:

The writer forwarded to you, by mail, last night, two sets of architectural drawings as required in your application for membership in the American Institute of Architects. The architectural drawings only were sent, no mechanical nor structural drawings being included as we did not know whether or not you required same. We also enclosed several photos in the roll of drawings and trust you will receive all promptly.

The writer's application was filed through the Dallas Chapter several months ago and was acknowledged by your office on June 5th, and we ask your pardon for not having complied with all requirements earlier, but pressure of business and absence from the office during the summer have delayed same.

I also take pleasure in enclosing herewith check for $25.00 as requested in your letter.

With best wishes, I am

Very cordially yours,

W. G. CLARKSON

Dear Mr. Clarkson:

Please accept our thanks for your letter of October 22nd, and your check in the amount of $25.00 in payment of the first year's Annual Dues in advance, subject to your election to membership in The American Institute of Architects.

The package of architectural drawings which you sent under separate cover have also been received.

Your application is now complete in every respect, and in time for submission to the October meeting of the Board of Examiners. It will then be brought before the Board of Directors at its November meeting, for final approval.

We shall be glad to advise you, in due course, of the action taken.

Yours sincerely,

Executive Secretary.
